Cuban Junta Arrived—Removal of Indians—Cabinet Rumors—Puget Sound Claims—The McCulloch-Rollins Trouble—The Johnson-Stanley Protocol Expected—Report of Supervising Architect Mullett—Officers Ordered to Report—Highly Important Circular from Commissioner Rollins—Currency Controller's Report—Secretaries Agree to Disagree—Central Pacific Railroad.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, November 16, 1868.

Representatives of the Cuban Revolutionary Junta have arrived here and ask to be recognized by our Government as belligerents. Mr. Seward will pay no attention to the Committee at present.

Colonel Tappan, of the Indian Peace Commission has arrived here and reports that seventy thousand peaceful Indians are now being removed to the new reservations.

Mr. Cushing opposes the payment of the Puget Sound claims on the ground of fraudulent exaggeration. The mixed Commission is still in session. The evidence fills four large volumes.

It is said that Admiral Porter is to be Secretary of the Navy. He has purchased a house here, and will become a resident next January.

The trouble between Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Rollins, relative to the Supervisorships, is still existing, and will not end during this administration, it is thought.

Chief Justice Chase has gone to Baltimore to hold Court.

A protocol for the settlement of the Alabama claims, signed by Minister Johnson and Lord Stanley, is expected here this week for examination by our Government. Mr. Seward is opposed to the published proposition for arbitration.

Supervising Architect Mullett has submitted his report on the condition of public buildings under his supervision for the year ending September 30th, 1868. The business is now greater than at any time since its organization. The report mentions among the causes of embarrassment in the completion of the many buildings in course of erection, is the eight hour system on Government work, which the Supervising Architect condemns strongly, and states that it has greatly increased the cost and retarded the progress of the buildings under the charge of his office. He recommends that a sufficient portion of the battery at New York be purchased as a site for appraiser's stores, and ultimately a new custom house, the present building being overcrowded, and the increase of business making additional room indispensable. He also calls attention to the difficulties of indiscriminate biddings for Government contracts, and recommends that some restrictions be placed upon it. Under the present plan the most worthless and incompetent bidder having the right to insist upon the acceptance of his proposal, though the department may be confident it cannot be enforced. All efforts to collect damages for breach of contract have heretofore failed. His estimates for the balance of the present and the next fiscal year includes $110,000 for Custom House at Cairo, $190,000 for Custom House at St. Paul, $150,000 for Custom House at Madison, Wis., $56,000 for Custom House at Springfield, Illinois, $150,000 for a Marine Hospital at Chicago, $25,000 for Custom House at Des Moines, Iowa, $750,000 for Branch Mint at San Francisco, $800,000 for a new Postoffice at Boston, and $490,000 for a Treasury building at Washington.

Brevet Major T. H. Bates, relieved, has been detailed for duty as Recorder of the St. Louis Retiring Board.

The following officers have been ordered to join their proper commands without delay: Brevet Maj. Gen. Heintzelman, Col. of the Seventeenth Infantry; Maj. Gen. Doubleday, Col. of the Thirty-fifth Infantry; W. H. Eaton, Lieut. Col. of the Thirty-seventh Infantry, and Brevet Brig. Gen. Shepherd, Col. of the Fifteenth Infantry. Capt. Joseph L. Tidball, retired, has been ordered to report to Gen. Meade for duty in the Department of the South.

Commissioner Rollins has issued a circular calling attention of all officers of Internal Revenue to the regulations for marking and branding of casks or packages of distilled spirits, a strict compliance with which is enjoined on all officers, especially gaugers in carrying out this regulation. It is charged in some districts that the regulations are persistently and deliberately disregarded; all officers are notified that they must be strictly complied with. It is also reported that the stamps for distilled spirits are, in many instances, negligently or insecurely attached. This is almost entirely the result of carelessness on the part of the gauger and undue haste in affixing the stamp. Care must be taken to attach the stamp securely and smoothly to a clean surface, and the gauger must take time enough to do so after it is so affixed. It should be cancelled as prescribed; then covered with transparent varnish. This is a matter for which the gauger will be held responsible, and a desire to do the greatest amount of work in the shortest space of time will not be accepted as an excuse for a failure to do the work well. Collectors and other receiving officers are instructed to detain or seize any or all casks and packages of spirits gauged after the receipt of these instructions which are not marked and branded as required by instructions, series 40, Nos. 7 and 8, the supplement thereto, and forthwith report the facts to this office. The owner of the spirits will find it to his interest to insist that the gauger does his work correctly. Any neglect to mark and brand spirits as required by the regulations, or any case of negligence or carelessness in attaching stamps should be at once reported to this office, that the proper steps may be taken for the dismissal of the officers so doing, and collectors will also be justified in declining to assign any gauger to duty who shall be found guilty of such negligence, carelessness or disregard of regulations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The Comptroller of Currency has concluded his annual report, which has been sent to the public printer. He reccomends the redemption of the National Bank Notes in New York and prohibiting the payment of interest on bank balances by Banks of that city. The report will contain the usual statistical information showing the condition of the Banks; taxes paid; amount of lawful money; reserve, &c. The number of banks organized since the last annual report is twelve; the number which have failed is four.

The result of a lengthy conference between the Secretary of the Treasury and Commissioner Rollins to-day, will be the appointment and rejection of several who have been nominated for Supervisorships.

A dispatch from San Francisco 16th says: The passengers and mails by the Central Pacific Railroad, are now carried to Arjunta, Nevada, the station for the Reese river Mining Distrtct, three hundred and eighty-five miles east of Sacramento. The track is laid sixty-five miles further east. The earnings for October exceeded $3,000,000.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 16, 1868.

MOVEMENTS OF GEN. GRANT.

General Grant, accompanied by his wife and General Dent, left West Point at half past three yesterday, and arrived in this city in the evening. He was received at West Point and along the line between this city and Garrison's landing, with hearty welcomings. Before leaving West Point he inspected the Cadet corps.

MAJ. PAULINE CUSHMAN DISCHARGED.

Major Pauline Cushman, who was arrested on Saturday at the instance of A. R. Newcomb, once a business agent of her's, and incarcerated in the Fifteenth Precinct Station House all that night, on a charge of larceny, was arraigned before Justice Dodge at the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning to answer. When questioned by the Court, Mr. Newcomb said he had no complaint to make, and with that the accused lady was permitted to depart. It is due to Major Cushman to state that she most indignantly denies the accusation and that she avers that the proeeedings instituted by Newcomb have their origin in vindictiveness and jealousy.

FIRES.

A fire broke out this morning, at No. 347½, Third avenue, in a building occupied by John Fenny as a hat store. It was caused by a hat body falling against the stove. Damage, $5,500; insured for $3,000.

About noon another fire broke out in a row of two story frame buildings, on the north side of Fulton avenue, near St. Felix street, Brooklyn, several of which were damaged to the amount of $3,000; fully insured. The occupants of the stores in the buildings suffered damages from $300 to $1,000 each. Total loss, $15,000.

WHISKY FRAUDS GREAT AS EVER.

The Sub-Committee of the Joint Congressional Committee resumed its session to-day. Testimony was given showing that frauds were now being perpetrated under the present revenue law; that distillers are as successful now as under the old law in evading the payments of tax, and from one-third to one-half of the whisky manufactured escapes a tax. The various modes in which frauds are carried out by which the revenue is defraded are fully explained in the investigation on this branch. Their inquiry is still further to be pursued to-morrow.

GEN. GRANT STILL IN NEW YORK.

General Grant this afternoon received callers at his parlors at the Metropolitan Hotel. When at his rooms he receives all who call, but refuses to designate any set hours when he would be in attendance. This afternoon the General and Mrs. [illegible] attended a dinner party at Judge Pierepont's and this evening visited Pike's Opera House. On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Bonner will take the General to see Dexter trot, and in the evening he will be entertained at a dinner party by A. T. Stewart. The statement that he had consented to be present at a reception by the Union League is authoritatively controverted. He will probably leave on Thursday for Philadelphia.

REPORTED FAILURES—GOLD TRANSACTIONS.

There were rumors of failures on the streets to-day, but only one firm was brought under the rule. The bankers have stood the violent fluctuations remarkably well. The transactions in Gold were enormous, the gross clearances being one hundred and seventy-seven millions.

SAILING OF THE STEAMER RISING STAR.

The steamship Rising Star sailed this afternoon for Aspinwall with a large number of passengers, among whom the pugilists Joe Coburn and O'Baldwin were expected to sail, but the latter could not do so without forfeiting his bail. A large crowd of pugs chartered the tug Seth Lord and accompanied the Star to Sandy Hook, where they bid Joe farewell.

BEECHER ON WHISKY AND OTHER FRAUDS.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher last evening preached on the text, "Abhor that which is evil," in which he unsparingly denounced the whisky and other frauds, and wholesale corruption in office at Albany and Washington, and among the judiciary.

DISCOVERY BY DETECTIVES.

Detectives have discovered important information concerning the death of young Nugent, found insensible, in Jersey city streets, on the night of the Democratic procession, just before the election.

"MONEY PINCH" AT AN END.

The excitement in Wall street continues to-day, and prices of fancy stocks are being bulled up greatly. Our bank statement is favorable, and it is thought that the pinch in the money market is at an end.

HEAVY BURGLARY.

The office of Richards & Bros., Barclay street, passenger agents of the Hamburg Steamship line, was burglarised on Saturday night of money and jewelry to the amount of $5,000.

HOTEL BURNED.

The large hotel buildings at Greenwood Lake, Orange county, New York, were completely destroyed by fire between three and four o'clock yesterday morning; fully insured.

RESIGNATION OF MAYOR HOFFMAN.

Mayor Hoffman to-day sent a letter of resignation to the Common Council, to take effect November 30th.

REPORTED EARTHQUAKE.

It is reported that a slight shock of earthquake was felt at Elizabeth, New Jersey, last night.

POSTPONED.

The Rosenburg naturalization case was up before Judge Nelson to-day, and was postponed till the 24th inst.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

At 6:40 o'clock last evening, Jame Barron, a Resident of Troy, was instantly killed at the Barclay Street Ferry Boat, being crushed between the boat and the bridge.

The Coroner's jury to-day in the case of the ferry boat collision, censure the pilot and deck hands who had charge of the Hamilton.

The Cuban expedition is still talked of, but is believed to be all moonshine.

The weather is cold and disagreeable to-day.

Business is improving. Stocks are active and buoyant.

It is reported to-day that another contest will be arranged between O'Baldwin and Wormald for $5,000 a side.

Thomas Crawford, a porter, was yesterday held to bail by Justice Downling, for stealing the goods of his employers, the American Suspender Company, of No. 62 Reade street.

English Elections—Liberal Gains—Bishop of Canterbury—Lord Sterling's Speech Disapproved—Serious Charges Against Minister Washburne—Request of Cuban Generals for More Troops Denied—Precautionary Measures in France—Republican Party Increasing in Numbers—King of Siam Dead—Volcanic Eruptions—Earthquake.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LONDON, November 16.—Parliamentary nominations were made to-day in nearly two hundred boroughs and nine counties in England, Scotland and Ireland. Great excitement prevails in all parts of the Kingdom, but so far the elections have been attended with little or no violence. Returns from forty-one constituencies show the Liberals to have gained six members.

The election of the following prominent candidates has been decided, and may be considered certain: Conservatives—Benj. D'Israeli, present Premier, from Buckinghamshire; George Ward Hunt, present Chancellor of the Exchequer, from Northamptonshire, North; Gutherie Hardy, present Home Secretary, from Oxford University; Charles B. Adderly, present Under Colonial Secretary, from Staffordshire, North; Lord Robert Montague, from Huntingdonshire; Col. Thomas Edward Taylor, Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasury, from Dublin county; George Schlater Boath, from Hampshire, North Spencer; Horatio Walpole, from Cambridge University; John Robert Mowbray, from Oxford University; Stephen Cave, from Shoreham; Breresford Hope, from Cambridge University.

Liberals—John Evelyn Deanison, speaker of the last House, from Nottinhamshire; Robert Lowe, from London University, Goorge Green, Fell Glynn, from Shaftsburg, Charles Pelham Villiers from Walverhampton, George Dennan from Liverton, Col. Wm. Henry Sykes from Aberdeen, M. E. Grant Duff, from Elgin; and Rauff William Henry Gregory, from Galway county; Sir John Gray, from Kilkenny City; the O'Conordon, from Roscommon; the O'Doneghue, from Tralee; A. E. Leatham, of Huddersfield; Alex. Hugh Baring.

LONDON, November 16—Midnight.—There was a slight disturbance at Manchester today, but it was soon quieted by the efforts of the police. No reports of serious disorder have been received from any part of the country.

LONDON, November 16.—The announcement is made to-day in the London journals that the Rev. Archibald Campbell Tait, D. D., Bishop of London, is appointed Archbishop of Canterbury.

PARAGUAY.

The Herald says the Minister of the United States to Paraguay has been getting himself into serious trouble with Marshal Lopez. The latter accused Minister Washburne of having entered into the conspiracy to assassinate the President, and it was charged that he had received one hundred and forty thousand dollars for his action. The chief accuser is Senor Jose Berges, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, who turned State's evidence against the conspirators. He charged Mr. Porter C. Bliss, a member of the Legation, with having signed a compact with the conspirators. Although Mr. Bliss denies all these charges in a letter to his friends, the Paraguayan Government has published a letter purporting to have been signed by Mr. Bliss, admitting all the charges against his own Minister. This letter is generally believed to have been gotten from the writer by means of torture while in prison. The whole foreign population of the Rio De La Plata are indignant at the outrages committed by Lopez in this affair, but regret that a Minister of the great Republic should have even noticed such charges.

The Commander of the American squadron, Rear Admiral Davis, had taken prompt measures to vindicate the insult to our flag. The Post contains the following editorals:

Elsewhere we print a letter from a well informed correspondent in the Rio De Janeric, the tone of which shows the deep feeling which exists among Americans in Brazil, at an extraordinary story about the United States Minister in Paraguay, Mr. Washburne. It is asserted that Mr. Washburne left the country, and abandoned to the barbarous dictator Lopez, two American citizens, Porter C. Bliss, and George F. Masterman, both, moreover, employed in the legation, and thus officers of the United States. So incredable a story of cowardice on the part of a United States Minister must be received as at least doubtful and susceptible of some explanation, honorable to Mr. Washburne, did not a long letter of Washburne's, which will also be found elsewhere, fully confirm it? He relates in this letter, which is addressed to the English Minister at Rio Janeiro, that Bliss and Masterman were forced from his side as he and they were passing from the Legation to the water side, where they were to embark in a United States vessel. Not only did he suffer this atrocious violation of the rights of Americans and his officer, but it seems, from his account, to have gone quietly aboard the vessel waiting for him, and sailed off leaving them to their fate without stopping even to remonstrate. Our correspondent in Rio de Janerio adds still further, that while the English and French fleets are hastening to Paraguay to rescue their people, Mr. Washburne has not even called for our fleet, which lies idly in Rio de Janeiro, while Lopez is torturing and murdering at his own secret will. Mr. Washburne's own letter condemns him. No such shameful outrage has ever been suffered by American citizens as that which he has tolerated. No such weak-minded person has ever misrepresented our Government abroad or suffered our flag to be dishonored and the sanctity of a United States Legation to be violated. We will say nothing of the reports which come from Rio of Mr. Washburne's entanglements with Lopez, or of his corruption by that barbarian. It is quite enough that he has tamely submitted to have two American citizens, besides a large number of persons of other nations, taken from his Legation where they had sought refuge from the fury of Lopez. We hope our Government will act promptly in this matter. The country has a right to demand that the President shall send out without the loss of a day by the speediest conveyance, a man with spirit to assert and maintain our rights and honor, and of our flag, to take the place of Washburne; and the new Minister must be backed by a fleet which will enable him to wring from Lopez the most ample reparation and apology for his outrage on our flag, and immediate restoration of all persons whom he forced from the legation. There can be no argument on this question. If our flag does not protect Americans in foreign countries it is a shame. It has no right to a place among the flags of nations, and unless our Government acts promptly and vigorously in this matter we shall become contemptible among foreigners. An officer of courage, a man like Farragut or Porter, should be sent out at once in the fastest man-of-war we have. Let him take the fleet which lies in Rio Janerio with him, and be instructed to deal with Lopez as Decatur did with the Dey of Algiers. It appears from Washburne's own letter that Lopez is a ruthless barbarian, who violates every law, and respects the rights of no one, whether native or foreigner. There is reason to believe he has submitted Bliss and Masterman to the torture, and there is no reason to deal with him otherwise than as one would with a pirate. It is humiliating that it should be necessary for the press of this country to call upon the Government to resent such an unheard of outrage upon our flag as Lopez has committed, or to save from imprisonment, torture and death American citizens. Mr. Washburne's misconduct is a stinging disgrace to every American, one under which our people will not remain quiet, for if they did, they would have lost all sense of honor. We trust the President and Mr. Seward will for once act promptly and show there is some decision and vigor left in the American Government. Washburne's own published letter shows a sufficient cause for the most energetic measures which can be taken.

FRANCE.

PARIS, November 16.—La France finds fault with Lord Stanley for his reference to France in his speech at Kings Lynn. It says he should recommend moderation to Prussia, not to France, and asserts that the general impression produced by that speech is not reassuring either as to the results of American negotiations, or the prospect of peace in Europe.

The Office material of the Temps newspaper, has been seized by the Police, and the publication of that journal suspended. The French Government has commenced proceedngs against other journals for alleged violations of the press law.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MADISON, Ind., November 16.—About eleven o'clock this morning Jacob Gaumer, a young man who had gained considerable notoriety in police courts, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. Jones, a sheet iron worker of this city. Jones immediately surrendered himself to the authorities. The Coroner's jury, after a thorough investigation of the affair, rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide. In a preliminary trial this evening Jones was acquitted and discharged.

HAVANA.

Progress of the Revolution—Flags Captured—The Leaders Not Natives—Prisoners Sent to Havana.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, November 16.—The Diaro publishes the following intelligence from the interior: Col. Lono remains at Tunas.

Several of the flags carried by the revolutionists have been captured. They are triangular in shape, and have the sun in the centre, with radiating stripes of different colors.

The Diaro regards the raising of this flag as an indication that the insurgents intend to declare their independence of Spain, and says we are glad the rebels have removed their mask. The right and duty of the Spanish government to disperse and annihilate these traitors is no longer a question of national duty.

It is represented that nearly all the revolutionary leaders are Dominicians or Mexicans.

A number of rebel prisoners captured by the troops were brought to Havana to-day.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The True Radicalism of Grant.

The St. Louis Democrat says: There are two elements—a Republicanism of principle and a Republicanism of passion. General Grant, we fancy, will be found with the Republicans of principle. When the war closed, he was denounced by many for his magnanimous terms to Lee, and afterwards, when some proposed to punish the traitor by civil law, General Grant firmly insisted that his pledge of protection must be respected. Neither during the war nor at any time since has he manifested any feeling of vindictiveness toward the conquered, and it is hardly likely that he will begin at this late day. "Let us have peace" means something from him. It means safety and security for all loyal men in all their rights. But it does not mean vengeance or harshness. True magnanimity will crush a hostile idea with merciless severity, but not the individuals who have honestly entertained it. We shall have the laws obeyed, and the constitution in all its guarantees respected, in every part of the land. Those who persist in lawless behavior will suffer. But those who mean to obey will have every encouragement that the government can justly give.

If we judge rightly, then, the administration of General Grant will be peculiarly satisfactory to that element in the Radical party which was last to become convinced of his fitness for the resposibilities of a President in these trying times. It will satisfy those Radicals who care for ideas; it will disgust those Radicals who care more for something else. The "political bummers," who were in such hot haste to "place him before the people," are likely to be disappointed. The true and honest men of the Republican party will find, we believe, that General Grant will accomplish all that they sought by his election—the triumph of Radical principles, the settlement of all vexed questions on the basis of justice, and the restoration of the Union to a safe and enduring peace.

The Spanish Proclamation Against Slavery.

The following is the text of the Supreme Junta's proclamation against negro slavery:

Considering that the enslaving of negroes is an outrage on human nature and a stain on the Spanish nation, the only one in the civilized world that still maintains it in all its integrity; that by its history, its character, its intimate connection with every phase of life in the Antilles, by the importance of whatever measure may be taken regarding it, and the serious consequences which any hasty proceeding might entail on the negro himself, slavery is one of those repulsive institutions whose disappearance ought not to be delayed, but which requires the judicious adoption of well-considered preliminary and simultaneous measures of entirely different nature to render facile, definite and advantageous the work of abolition. Considering that these views in nowise prevent the Provisional Government—while awaiting that the Constituent Cortes, after having heard the deputies from the colonies, may decree the abolition of slavery—from taking some steps to satisfy outraged justice without any fear of causing any of those complications which would compel it to await the meeting of the Assembly, the Superior Revolutionaey Junta of Madrid proposes to the Provisional Government, as a measure of urgency and safety, to declare free all children of enslaved women born after the [illegible]

Gen. Dix has written a letter to a distinguished Republican official at Washington, in which he expressed surprise that his first letter, repudiating the nominees of the New York Democratic Convention, should have attracted so much attention in the United States. In this last letter he reiterated the opinion that the Democratic party was destined to be defeated and broken up, on account of the sympathy of its leaders with the rebellion. He compares it to the old Federal party of 1812, which ceased to exist because of its opposition to the war in which the nation was engaged with England. He says that the sound patriotic Democrats had no other course left but to ally themselves with the Republican party in the support of General Grant. The letter throughout breathes the strongest spirit of patriotism, and expresses the hope that Grant would be elected.

FREEDMEN'S WAGES IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—A colored farm laborer in South Carolina receives about $100 a year besides food, which costs about $50, making his pay $150. Women and second-rate men hire for their food and from five to seven dollars a month in money, while first-rate men can get from eight to ten dollars a month in money, plus their food. A few are below these figures and a few above them. Mechanics and some house servants in the cities get higher wages. Masons receive $1,50 to $2,00 per day, and day laborers seventy-five cents per day.

MR. B. D. WALSH, State Entomologist of Illinois, is reported as saying at a public meeting of horticulturists recently, that he has found in Southern Illinois two insects that prey upon the bed-bugs—that crawl in among the bed-clothes and slay the bugs by the thousand. This accounts, we suppose, for the remarkable absence of bed-bugs in the Southern hotels, and their presence in the Northern—for we do not remember to have seen any of these bed-bug eaters in the North, though we have seen plenty of forage for them. Some of the stock should be imported.

DISCOVERIES of rich deposits of coal and iron oar have been made in Monroe and Greene counties, Ind. The coal is the genuine block coal, and smelts iron without coking. The iron ore is hematite, which is the best ore in the world.

THE LAKE SUPERIOR IRON REGION.

NUMBER ONE.

Although the iron interests of Pittsburgh are largely dependent upon the rich Superior Iron Ores, and almost every day we may see several car loads, consigned to some one of our blast furnaces, yet the isolated peninsula from whence this wonderful metaliferous deposit is obtained is an almost terra incognita to most of our citizens. While indulging in the relaxation of a recent autumn trip to the iron mines, we noted a few facts, relative to this region, which may not prove entirely devoid of interest to your readers.

A SUMMER TRIP.

For a pleasant summer vacation we know of no trip so promising, as to relaxation, health or pleasure, as that to the diversified shores of Lake Superior. The cool, clear, bracing atmosphere, the trip on the Lakes, the changing scenery, the appetizing diet, all attract the tired man of business, and promise a fresh stock of energy for the wearing routine of every day life, on his return. With the Lake route, from Cleveland to Eagle River and Ontonagon, many of our citizens are agreeably acquainted; this leads to the region of copper. But leaving the excursion steamer at Marquette, you are in the region of iron, and with this we shall at present, content ourselves.

THE ROUTE TO THE MINES.

There are two routes to the Lake Superior iron region. The first, as above indicated, via Cleveland and lake steamer to Marquette; the second via Chicago and Green Bay, to Escanaba, the rival shipping port for the iron ores on Bay de Noquet, at the head of Green Bay. The time from Pittsburgh to Escanaba is 36 hours; distance 708 miles. The accommodation for travellers is unsurpassed for the entire distance over the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R., as most Pittsburghers know, travellers are rapidly and comfortably carried, across the great States of Ohio, Indiana and part of Illinois, and from the head of the Ohio to the margin of the great lakes of the West, in about eighteen hours. At Chicago, you find a great consolidated system of Railroads, including all the lines West and Northwest from Chicago, known as the "Chicago and Northwest Railways." This is the great Vanderbilt connection of the New York Roads, running in connection with the Michigan Road and the Lake Shore Lines, reaching its iron arms directly west by the Dixon Air Line to Iowa, Omaha and the Union Pacific, northwest via Janesville to St. Paul and Minnesota; north via Fort Howard and Green Bay to the Peninsula and Ontonagon—ultimately to Superior city, at the extreme western outlet of the great lakes, and thence to the Mississippi, at St. Paul, by a road now building. This vast net work of railways is operated under the same management, with Samuel S. Tilden, of New York, as President, and Wm. B. Ogden, of Chicago, as Vice President, forming, together with its various west and northwest connections, a gigantic monopoly.

At Chicago we took the cars of the Wisconsin division of this great Northwest consolidation, for Fort Howard, at the Southern end of Green Bay, and across the river from the flourishing city of the same name. This trip of two hundred and forty-two miles occupies about twelve hours; the route is through Milwaukie or Janesville, as you may select, passing through the garden of Wisconsin, and the flourishing towns of Oshkosk, Fondulac and Dupere. Here the C. & N. W. R. R. connects with its line of elegant paddle wheel steamers, which carry us up this beautiful bay, with its lumber and fishing interests, one hundred and twenty miles to the new town of

ESCANABA,

The Southern terminus of the Peninsular branch of the same great consolidated railway lines, about which we have been speaking. Green Bay terminates at "the door," as navigators term the eastward passage out into the lakes. "Sand Point" is a long tongue of low, sandy beach, projecting from the bay into the peninsula, upon the Eastern extremity of which the government has recently erected a substantial lighthouse. Rounding this point, and turning the prow of our steamer Westward, we are in great Bay de Noquet, and presently came to the railroad docks at Escanaba, a new town, which was a wilderness five years ago. Looking around we see that we are in the iron region of Lake Superior. Just above where we come to the dock, is a long, high tresseled dock, built on stout pile, with a train of low, clay colored dump cars upon it; a number of vessels are moored alongside, in fourteen feet of water, the harbor perfectly land-locked, receiving their cargo of ores direct from the cars. We see immense heaps of "Wilmington" and "Brier Hill" coal on these docks; also cords of pig iron—the best charcoal pig—on its way from the local furnaces to the m'lls of Ohio and Pennsylvania. Bnt we will only stop here a few minutes, as the train is filling up for the last stage of our tour; presently we are off for

NEGAUNEE.

The town of the Iron Mines, sixty-five miles distant from Escanaba, and fourteen miles from Marquette. The railroad from the bay is, though a primeval forest of cedar, balsam and pine, the soil is sandy loam, and the surface is almost a water level. The rails stretch away off in a straight perspective, until they seem to reverse the rule that "two parallel lines cannot meet." We encounter no other symptoms of civilization than the straight, level roadway, with an occasional wood chopper's shanty, or a switch tender's house; there is not a clearing, or a house, besides, until we reach Goose Lake, or Lake Fairbanks, fifty-eight miles inland, when we are startled from our reveries by a village of rather overgrown Hottentot huts, whitewashed, built in a long line, alongside the new track. On inquiry, we learn that these are the charcoal ovens of the Pioneer Furnaces; they are composed of cast iron, brick or stone, lined with five feet brick inside, and plastered with cement outside, whitewashed, so as to enable the colliers to detect leaks the more readily. It is deemed the more economical method of burning charcoal, as these ovens can be taken down and removed, when the wood in thier vicinities has been burned off.

But we pass by the ovens and the Lake, and are presently in the flourishing little town of Negannee, of about 3,000 inhabitants, principally engaged in the iron mines, or interests connected therewith. Both the road we have traveled, and the Marquette road connect Negaunee with the outer world, and their westward projections and branches, with all the iron mines, extending some sixteen miles westward. Twenty-two years ago this was a wild and uninhabited region, known only to the Indians. In 1845 John Western and P. M. Everett, guided by an Indian, discovered the now celebrated iron mountain worked by the Jackson Iron Company. A quantity of this remarkable deposit was secured from the surface, packed by half breeds to the mouth of the Carp river, (now where the town of Marquette is) from thence transported in canoes to the Sault, and, on being shipped to Detroit, was tested by supposed experts, and pronounced worthless. To-day, the region around Negannee contains a population of 15,000 people, and yields a product of about 500,000 tons of the richest iron ore in America, from which nearly one-fifth of all the iron of the United States is made.

THE IRON REGION

of Lake Superior is all included within the limits of Marquette county, Michigan, within a range about six miles wide, running in a northwest and southeast course, from the vicinity of Lake Fairbanks (Goose Lake) on the east, in town 47 N. of range 26 W. to Kenesaw Bay, in town 49 N. of range 33 W—a distance of nearly one hundred miles. The mines now opened and being worked are all situated on the east end of the range indicated, the most remote from Gegaunee being the Washington, Edwards and Champion, the latter near the east shore of Lake Michigammi. This is known as the Marquette Iron Range. At the point where this range is intersected by the Menominee river, explorers report that another range of iron ore, of very rich quality, is found on both sides of that stream, down to about Town 40. As this section is yet a wilderness, traversed only by the explorers for minerals and timber, and as both are now, and for some years will be, inaccessible, if existing at all of course the value of this range is a question of the future.

In order to fully apprehend the extent of the Iron business, the following table is given, showing the total production of the principal mines of the districts during the year 1867:

	Gross Tons.
Jackson Mine	126,390
Cleveland Mine	83,649
New York Mine	47,000
Lake Superior Mine	119,935
Pittsburgh & L. Angelin Mine	46,607
New England Mine	9,075
Edwards Mine (new)	4,980
Washington Mine	25,440
Iron Nit Mine (new)	5,000
Marquette Mine (new)	7,827
Foster Mine (new)	1,000
Champion Mine (new)	1,000
Total	477,903

Notwithstanding this large yield, representing about 238,900 tons of Pig Iron, little beside surface work has yet been done at any of the mines; all the mineral has been quarried from shallow openings in the sides of the iron hills. It is only during the past two or three years that pumping machinery has been erected at two or three of the mines, and adits, for drainage, began. R.

PRISON DISCIPLINE.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

Many articles have, within a few months, appeared in the GAZETTE and Commercial on "Prison Discipline" and "Solitary Confinement," and all of them condemnatory of the Pennsylvania system. Some have denounced it as tending to "brutalize" the prisoner, and the denunciation has been without proof or assigning any reason.

In your issue of Saturday (November 7th) you have an editorial headed "Prison Discipline," which, although not at all of the character of empty denunciations, yet seems to have been written without a thorough knowledge of the Pennsylvania (separate) system of Imprisonment," or of its practical workings. If I understand your remarks upon the system which "Pennsylvania, some forty years ago, put into practice," you deem it "the wild beast theory"—"the criminal is a wolf capable of neither repentance nor reformntion—all you want is to chain him."

Now, gentlemen, the very stimulus that led to the examination of previous systems of imprisonment—to their condemnation and the adoption of "the separate system" was the conviction that the prisoner was capable of "repentance" and "reformation," and that it was a christian duty, to endeavor to reform him and not merely confine him as under a "wild beast theory," by which society was to be protected from further injury, but no good attempted for the prisoner—no effort made to reclaim him.

Prisons and prison discipline had always been sufficiently positive—and often very cruel, but nothing in them tended to reform the convict. Christians, in Pennsylvania, recognizing that State prisoners, like all other sinners, had immortal souls—that they were to be cared for, and all the means that could be brought to bear upon them while undergoing "confinement and punishment," should be resorted to to lead them to repent of and forsake their evil ways—to make the prison a school of reform, and to aim at making Christians of its inmates. Such are the moral, the human, the Christian design and desire—no "wild beast theory,"—however, you may think they failed to reach their ends by the system they adopted.

What is that system? The Pennsylvania Separate System of Prison Discipline contemplates:

First—Separation of one convict from all others, that is, from evil companionship and influence.

Second—Occupation at some useful branch of trade a sufficient length of time, each day, to afford bodily exercise—earn something towards defraying his expense to the State while in prison, and enable him to acquire a knowledge of a trade by which honestly to support himself after his discharge from prison. But the task of work was limited to such an amount as to leave him abundant time for Third—Moral and Intellectual Culture. To aid him in this a Moral Instructor is made an officer of the prison, whose duty is daily to visit among the prisoners—giving appropriate religious and moral instruction and counsel—selecting from a well stored library, suitable books for those that can read—and becoming the schoolmaster to such as never had the benefit of an education.

Three times, daily, the prisoner sees an officer who supplies his rations—and to whom he can make known any want or desire. He is, also visited in his cell, daily, and oftner if needed, to be instructed in his trade and to have his work examined. The Warden makes his rounds of visitation conversing with and counselling these prisoners—and whehever they desire it, they can call for the physician for his attention and advice. Now, gentlemen, in all this there is nothing to be seen in the "wild beast theory." Each prisoner has a good sized, well lighted, well ventilated room—with a hydrant affording abundance of good fresh water.

You remark justly, "our discipline must seek to educate the prisoner. If he cannot read and write and cypher, let these arts be taught him as a means of present pastime, and future usefulness. If he has no trade, let him learn one. It will make him a safer and more useful member of the community, etc." Are not these the very ends aimed at in the seprate system? And to secure the faithful administration of the system, the appointment of Inspectors was entrusted to the Supreme Court, when its members were removed from all the influences of party politics—not then being elected—that moral and intellectual fitness for the office might be alone considered, and the position and the small pecuniary emoluments given as salaries to the Warden and other officials under them might not be conferred as party spoils and rewards to mere politicians.

"As further and final means of reform," you say "the prisoner should have the opportunity of earning something against the time of release." This was effected by paying him for over work, which every one so disposed could accomplish, as the tasks were never so great but that they could be completed by an industrious convict in two-thirds of the time allotted for work. Besides, a small sum of money is given to each prisoner by the State at the time of his discharge.

"A year or two," you assert, "reduces the majority to such a stupid, stolid, fatuous state that, beyond that time, nothing remains but madness or deep-settled revenge." This is not in accordance with facts. Witness the annual reports of all the officers.

The fact that Auburn has adopted the silent for the solitary system, and that with sanitary and economical advantages, is a strong argument against our solitary persecution. When did "Auburn" try the Pennsylvania System? And in what do her reports show any 'sanitary advantages?' None—and none were to have been expected. "The inmates dare not speak, but it is such a privilege to see the human face." Can there be greater refinement of cruelty than to bring men together, with social natures, and yet they "dare not speak" or hold any communication with each other, not even to express their most urgent want, but at the peril of immediate and severe punishment? And under this congregate, silent system, if a prisoner by reason of skill or industry completes his allotted task before the usual time of closing the work of the shop, he is compelled to occupy his place without change of any position to give relief, and not permitted even to look towards his fellow convicts at work, lest there might be, in that look, some kind of communication! What a "privilege to see the human face!" But my article is becoming too extended, although I have not noticed all the remarks, opinions and assertions of your editorial on "Prison Discipline," which I desired, CITIZEN.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 16, 1868.

There is really nothing that is new or important to be said about the markets in a general way. Stagnation still seems to be the order of the day, but we are in hopes that an improvement is near at hand, though it must be confessed that the indications at present are by no means encouraging. There is no speculative feeling manifested, and besides, money is tight, and those who speculate on borrowed capital have but little show at present, as there is a general antipathy against doing business of that character.

APPLE BUTTER—Dull and unchanged at 70 to 75 in kegs, and 80 to 85c, in crocks.

APPLES—In good supply but with a continued steady demand, prices are sustained, ranging from $2 to $4 per bbl.

BEANS—Unchanged; sales of small white at $3,75 to $4 per bushel.

BUTTER—Is in good supply and a little dull but unchanged; sales of good to prime Roll at 35 to 38c, and choice at 40c.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is dull but unchanged, at 4½ to the trade, and 5 cts in a retail way.

CESTNUTS—Quoted at $6,50 per bushel.

CHEESE—Is dull, but prices are without quotable change; sales at 17c for Hamburg, and 19 to 20c for Goshen.

CIDER—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $6 to $10 per bbl, as to quality and size of barrel.

CRANBERRIES—None in market.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet and unchanged; we quote Peaches at 12 for quarters, and 14 for halves. Apples 9 to 10 cts.

EGGS—Dull at 33c.

ONIONS—Very dull; offered freely at $1,50 per bushel.

HAY—Baled Hay is in abundant supply and very dull but unchanged; we continue to quote at $18 to $24, as to quality.

POTATOES—Quiet and unchanged at 70 to 75c in bulk, and 80 to 85 in sacks—for car load lots.

SALT—Is in steady demand, and we can report regular sales at $1,75 on track, and $1,90 to $2, in store.

HOMINY—Is quoted at $6,50 to $7 per barrel.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and while the demand is small, the same is true of the supply; Shoulders 13½; and Sugar Cured Hams 18 to 19c. Lard 17½ to 18, and Mess Pork $28 to $28,50 for new.

LARD OIL—No. 1 Winter strained is in steady demand, at $1,50.

GRAIN—There is no improvement to note in the Grain market, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. Wheat cannot be quoted accurately; there has been no sales for some days, and there seems to be no demand. Oats quiet; we continue to qoute at 64 to 65, on wharf and track, and the usual advance for small lots in store. New Corn is dull with sales at 70 to 75. Old Corn is also dull but nominally unchanged. Rye is dull and nominal at $1,35 to $1,38. Barley is dull and irregular: prime Spring could be sold at $1,75 to $1,80, but there are no sellers, as yet, at these figures.

FEATHERS—Unchanged at 75c to the trade, and 80 to 85 for small lots in store.

TALLOW—Prime rendered is in steady demand at 12c.

SEEDS—Flaxseed none in market; small sales of Timothy Seed at $3 to $3,25.

FLOUR—Is dull and rather weak but unchanged. Spring Wheat brands may be quoted at $7,00 to $7,50 for fair to good, and $7,75 to $8 for choice. The Pearl Mill prices are for Extra Family in bbls, $9,90 and in sacks $9,60 per bbl; Double Extra Family in barrels $10,40. and in sacks $10,10 per barrel. City Mills quote prices as follows: Extra Family, in barrels, $9,80, and in sacks, $9,50; Double Extra Family, in barrels, $10,30, and in sacks, $10 per bbl.

WHISKY—Is quiet and unchanged at $1,20 for both Highwines and Rectified.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily with five feet seven inches in the channel, by the Monongahela marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant in the forenoon, but in the afternoon it clouded up, and in the evening, it was close and sultry with strong indications of rain.

The Julia No. 2 from Zanesville, and Mary Davage from St. Louis are the only arrivals we have to report.

The Messenger, for St. Louis, with about all she could take, and barge in tow, departed. The New State for Wheeling, and the Bayard for Parkersburg, cleared as usual.

The Arkansas, Capt. A. H. Shaw, with Mr. A. C. McConnell, in the office, is filling up steadily, and will soon take her departure for New Orleans.

The Leonidas, Capt. Ed. Evans, is now in turn for St. Louis, and will be the first boat out.

The Glasgow, Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr., is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, is announced to take her departure for New Orleans on Wednesday without fair.

The Tom Farrow, Barges, will commence loading for St. Louis on Wednesday. She lies down near the foot of Market street, where Capt. Chas. Mathews will give all necessary information,

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular Wednesday packet for Parkersburg, leaving at noon.

The Messenger will leave Wheeling today, upon the arrival of the trains from Pittsburgh, for Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis.

—The Lorena, en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Cairo on Friday.

—The Antelope, with a tow of coal for St. Louis, passed Evansville on Friday.

—It is expected that Capt. Stockdale's mountain steamer Sallie will load at St. Louis for Pittsburgh.

—The Muscatine Journal, of the 9th, says: It is said that movements have been inaugurated for extending the White Collar line to New Orleans, the entire navigable length of the Mississippi. Three new boats, to be modeled after the Phil. Sheridan, have been ordered.

—A Louisville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial, says: Advices have been received of another coalboat run from Pittsburgh. The last run was disastrous—33 barges and boats stranded and sunk, including 9 at Buffiington. The work on the railroad bridge, at the falls, is still progressing on all the piers but one on the back bone, where they have, thus far, been unable to keep out the water, to lay the foundation. Boatmen are about to protest against the narrow span and low arch across the Indian Chute, contending that, if the present plans are carried out, the navigation of the falls will be effectually suspended.

—We clip the following from the Memphis Avalanche: The Lizzie Gill arrived here on Monday evening. Her negro crew, shipped at St. Louis for the trip to New Orleans, and back, "jumped her" as soon as she landed, after having been exceedingly abusive and offensive to the officers of the boat. Upon jumping ashore they scattered in all directions, some making their way up the landing, others down, while a third party ran up Madison street. They were pursued and headed, and with the energetic aid and through the instrumentality of Mr. Morrison, assistant wharfmaster, they were captured and taken in a body to the station house and presented on two charges "mutiny on board the Lizzie Gill" and "abusive language, calculated to provoke a breach of the peace." Capt. Simons, in the face of the riotous conduct of the mutineers, decided that he could not hold them, and they were according discharged.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, November 16.—The river is stationary with five and a half in the channel. The weather is cloudy and warm; thermometer falling.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 136¼.

THE monetary panic is at an end in New York city. Its effect was in nowise felt here.

A FEW days more will reveal all the facts of the supposed adjustment of the "Alabama claims" questions with England.

THE musical world is called to mourn the death of GRAOCHINO ROSINI, the eminent Italian composer, who passed away on the 14th inst., at the advanced age of seventy-six years.

IT IS with considerable sorrow that we announce this morning the death of CHOO PHA MONGKOUT, King of Siam. He was a great man, but does not figure in the Encyclopedia, and hence must be dismissed with a brief obituary notice by the journals of our country.

WE PRINT, this morning, the first in a series of articles upon the Lake Superior Iron region, which have been prepared for the GAZETTE by a gentleman thoroughly familiar with that region, and its immensely valuable mineral resources. A second article will appear to-morrow.

THE Cuban fillibustering project, at New York, is reported to have dwindled into its just proportions, as the shrewd dodge of a few seedy adventurers to raise the wind for their own pecuniary benefit. Cuba is not the first Island of which the "oppressions" have been a source of profit to American sympathizers.

THE INCREASE OF THEIR POPULATION, as displayed in the recent vote, astonishes the people of Illinois. This increase will freely reach one hundred thousand votes, and must represent at least an added half million in the total population. Evidently, Illinois is secured against any diminution of the Federal status under the ensuing census.

IT NEEDED but one Ukase, from the Czar, to abolish personal serfdom throughout the Russian Empire. His edicts were accepted and obeyed, quietly and absolutely, in all his dominions. The Autocrat has now attacked the great national sin—that of intemperance—undertaking to suppress its public indulgence by his subjects. It is not improbable that the imperial authority may encounter, herein, its severest test.

WE DO NOT credit the complicated charges made against MR. WASHBURNE, our Minister in Paraguay. If true, the Government should take prompt action, and not only secure the early deliverance of our citizens now held prisoners, but likewise vindicate the national honor. It is impossible to conceive how any American could be guilty of the charges laid to our Minister, and we await further developments before more fully expressing ourselves on the subject.

A. T. STEWART, the Merchant Prince of New York, was conspicuous in his devotion and zeal for the triumph of Republican principles in the recently closed campaign. He was among the very first to hail GRANT as the coming man for the Presidency, and contributed not a little towards securing his election. In return for his kindness and fidelity, the President elect has accepted invitation to dine with him to-morrow—no ordinary compliment, considering the reticence and retiring disposition of the Great Captain.

THE CHANGED ASPECT of the reconstruction question in Mississippi is due to the very careful and patient investigation made by the Commissioners appointed by the Convention to canvass the vote upon its adoption. It seems that the apparent rejection of that instrument was brought about by the familiar Democratic dodge of illegal voting. The examinations now completed by the Committee settles the fact that a majority of the legal votes of the State were cast in favor of the new Constitution, and electing all the requisite officers thereunder.

IT WAS thought under the new Revenue law that the Government would no longer be subjected to the gross frauds perpetrated by the manufacturers of whisky, but recent revelations show that Congressional wisdom was unequal to the shrewd wickedness of distillers. Fifty per cent. of the spirits now manufactered in the country escape the payment of just taxation through fraud and deception. Congress may enact laws to its heart's content, and BEECHER may scold in his pulpit forevermore, but until some light of morality is let into the souls of members of the whisky ring, the Government will fail to get full dues from that quarter.

THE CUBAN REVOLUTIONISTS ask our Government to recognize their rights as belligerents, but Secretary SEWARD is too tender on that subject, just now, to pay any attention to the request. Circumstances alter cases. Under the Bourbon rule, Havana was practically an entrepot for rebel depredations on our commerce and for the naval and military supply of the Confederacy. With the same rule now, the insurrectionary Cubans might not apply in vain; but, as the case stands, our people will not care to interpose offensively against the new government which is leading Spain in the direction of Liberty and Republicanism. Nor should it be forgotten that the Cuban insurgents are fighting as much against the inevitable abolition of slavery as against the mere colonial yoke.

THE Senatorial question excites much attention in these parts. There being two candidates strenuously put forward by respective friends in Allegheny county, neither one of whom feels justified in withdrawing, we are at a loss to reflect the situation. Messrs. MARSHALL and MOORHEAD have both legions of admirers in this neighborhood, and, from present appearances, will go hand in hand before the Legislature for a decision as to whom should fall the honor of the place. In admitting to these columns correspondence upon the subject, it is not to be presumed that we are biased in either direction. We desire to afford free scope to the friends of both in presenting their claims to the public, but, of course, reserve the right to eliminate from communications anything said to the disparagement of either gentleman, a course which we feel assured will be endorsed by both candidates and by all right thinking members of the party.

THE Reading Gazette, from which we print an article on "Our Election Laws," in another column, is the Democratic organ in Berks county, and is understood to be edited by Hon. J. L. GETZ, the Democratic member of Congress from that district. Its suggestions and recommendations merit general attention, as the first Democratic expression, in this Commonwealth, in favor of such legal provisions as shall purify and protect the suffrage. Former opposition to a registry-law has come entirely from that quarter, nor have any measures whatever, looking to the honest security of elections, been heretofore approved by the leaders of that party. We accept, therefore, the present movement, and in a quarter so influential, as promising results of decided advantage to the people. Whatever may be the practicability of all the suggestions in its article, the temper and general tone of our Democratic cotemporary are most commendable.

HON. JOHN M. KIRKPATRICK has been appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy on the bench of the District Court, made by the elevation of Judge WILLIAMS to the position of Justice of the Supreme Court. In designating Mr. K. for the position, Governor GEARY has done well, as no choice could have met with more universal satisfaction or a heartier endorsement. Mr. KIRKPATRICK has long held high place in his profession, and in the manner he discharged his duty as District Attorney—an office he held with credit for several years—we have ample assurance of his capacity and fitness for the more exalted position to which called. A good lawyer, sound thinker, the possessor of a large stock of common sense, practical and earnest in all things, and a man of unblemished public and private character, Mr. KIRKPATRICK will prove an ornament to the Judiciary of Allegheny county, and will, doubtless, so conduct himself in his new department as to meet the demands of the legal fraternity and increase the measure of respect and esteem in which he is held by all classes of the community.

REPUBLICANISM IN MARYLAND.

A popular movement is again agitated in Maryland against the anti-Republican form of their Constitution of 1867. Petitions are in circulation, obtaining numerous signatures, in the Northern and Northwestern counties, comprehending the more purely white and free-labor regions of Maryland, which will present to Congress an exact statement of the facts showing the unjust subjection of a majority of the white population of the State to the dictation of a minority. For example, they show that fifteen counties of Southern Maryland, with but one-fourth of the white population of the State, have three-fifths of the State Senate, and an undue proportion in the House of Delegates. Nine of these Southern counties, largely slave-holding under the old Constitution, have now about one-half of the entire colored population of the State, to all of whom the right of suffrage is denied. Showing that, by its own terms, their Constitution cannot be amended except with the consent of three-fifths of the elected members of each House, they protest that no remedy exists for this exclusion of the majority, whether white or black, from an equality of political rights, except through the Federal intervention.

This position of affairs in Maryland has already attracted the attention of Congress, but with no prospect whatever that the desired intervention will take place. Members are very naturally inclined to hesitate, upon a proposition which involves, as many of them think, an unwarrantable interference with rights clearly pertaining to the State itself. When "gerrymanders" by State Legislatures, for either State or Federal purposes, but more especially the former, shall be regarded as justifying Congressional correction, a very wide and perplexing field of duty will be opened, and one in which the marked distinctions now recognized in the Federal Constitution, between the rights of States and of the Nation, would be speedily and effectively obliterated.

The evils of which the Maryland Republicans complain are unquestionably most trying and unjust, but they will find their remedy in another way than that now proposed. The new arrangement of Congressional ratios, in the first place, will strip the State of the excessive representation to which, under its present exclusion of the blacks from the suffrage, it has now no title. This will practically touch those "black" counties which at present control an undue share of power in that State. Even their preponderance in the Legislature, must acknowledge the Federal authority in this regard, when dividing the Congressional representations by districts. Three of the State's four members will inevitably go into the Northern half of the State, where the white strength is found. The influence of that fact will prove its own potency in due time, and a juster distribution of Legislative privileges will follow.

Should Maryland, on the other hand, enfranchise her blacks, she will, by that simple act, repair all the injustice now complained of, and the Southern and Eastern Shore counties will perfect their title to a leading share in representation. We have as little doubt that Maryland will eventually accept the logic of events, and adopt a uniform and impartial suffrage, as we have that Congress will otherwise speedily and inexorably insist upon reducing her Federal representation to its Constitutional limit. In either event, the injustice which so many of its citizens now protest against will find its relief.

THE BERLIN AQUARIUM.

Berlin, as is well known, possesses one of the oldest zoölogical gardens of Europe, the so-called "Theirgarten," but, in spite of the support of the people and the Government, it has lately so degenerated that it can bear no comparison whatever with the similar institutions of Paris and London. It therefore seemed desirable to create something new, which might be an ornament to the Capital of North Germany.

The idea to create an Aquarium in Berlin, was entertained by various parties at the same time; yet only the present company succeeded in really executing the design. Urged by Mr. E. Stahlschmidt, a merchant, Messrs. Dr. Hinschias Bauff, (banker,) Tuchen (counselor,) Eichhorn (merchant,) and H. Wachemhansen met in council during the winter of '66—67, and in April, '67, invited the public to engage in the enterprise by the purchase of shares. The Luxemburg question for a while threatened to kill the movement in the bud, but the political horizon having once more cleared up, the plan again engaged the attention of the public, and even as early as July, the Association of the Berlin Aquarium, constituted itself. After purchasing a desirable location in the center of Berlin, on the famous thoroughfare called "The Linden," the company commenced its preliminary labors most vigorously. The corner-stone was laid in September, and the work pushed in such a manner—in spite of the unfavorable nature of the ground—that, on the 27th of August, '68, the festival of completion could be celebrated, in presence of the shareholders and of the members of the press.

The design of the building, and all its details, originated with the talented architect, W. Luer, in Hanover, who had acquired the necessary experience in building the Aquarium and laying out the zoological garden of that city, and he had trained Mr. Leyfarth, of Cassel, as an efficient assistant. The hands destined to build the grottos were imported from the Hartz Mountain, and properly instructed on the spot in regard to the proper position of rocks and strata. The latter had also to be imported from various places, since the country around Berlin could offer nothing but limestone and a few scattered boulders.

Most of the stones were ordered from the Hartz, others from the Deister; stalactites from the Thuringian forest; serpentine and marble from the Ore-mountain; basaltum from the Seven Mountains; petrified wood and the like from the coalpits near Halle. Great problems were imposed on the civil engineer, but Berlin furnished all the necessary capacities in that line.

The Berlin Aquarium stands on a lot of 16,000 square feet, in three stories. Aquarium is really a less proper name than Vivarium, or a zoological garden under roof; because it contains animals of every description. The upper story is intended for mammalia, birds, reptiles and insects; the first story for maritime animals and a few aquatic birds, and the basement contains the sea-water tanks, the heating apparatus, etc.

Coming from the Linden, the visitor first ascends a broad staircase leading past the ticket office to the two upper stories, and then steps into a gallery containing, on both sides, crocodiles, lizards and snakes of the greatest variety. Here, as all through the Aquarium, the visitor gazes from a dark place into the brilliantly lighted cages of the animals. This offers a double advantage: one sees the animal in the most favorable light, and the animal itself is less disturbed by the visitor. Every cage is closed towards the spectator with large panes of glass, strong enough to resist the attempt of even a crocodile or anaconda to escape. In this way the visitor can observe the most venomous serpent, from the closest proximity, without any risk whatever. The first gallery is closed by an artificial cleft, whose walls show the natural strata of the earth as they really appear, and whose bottom is enlivened by large specimens of the land-turtle, while the upper part is occupied by the winged tribes of the air.

A couple of steps lead the visitor from this place into a deep space, as it were from the tropical desert into the tropical forest, for he finds himself before a large family cage of 44 feet in diameter and 28 feet in height, divided into fifteen divisions, and peopled with the magnificent birds of all the tropics. A few basins, niches and cages, empty yet, are destined for various mammalia—lizards, fishes, and other sweetwater animals. A larger basin, covered with swimming water-plants and encircled by creepers, has been prepared for the sweetwater turtles. Attached to this central place, we see a grotto, in which we find cages with waders, and water-birds, and basins for lizards, fishes, crabs and other inhabitants of rivers, ponds and brooks. From this grotto we ascend a flight of steps, which appear to be cut through the rock, and on whose sides we see glass boxes, in which we can study the artificial progagation of fish. We also see a larger basin, in which a few rocks project from the water, and which is intended to harbor a pair of beavers.

From here we reach the real Aquarium and again observe basins in which the animals and plants of various seas are exhibited. The leading idea of the whole institution is the desire to imitate nature as much as possible. First, we see the basin of the German Ocean; next that of the Baltic Sea, which is the largest of all, (as large as the entire Hamburg aquarium) in spite of the few animals living in this sea. The centre of this gigantic grotto is occupied by the basin of the Atlantic Ocean, while other basins of larger and smaller size represent other bodies of water in which large salt-water turtles are allowed to sport. The terminus is occupied by the basin of the Mediterranean Sea, containing a true imitation of the blue grotto of Capri.

All the pillars, vaults and walls are natural stone, and imitation is avoided because the greatest skill is insufficient to fully reach the art of nature. In this way the delusion becomes perfect, and the visitor at the Berlin Aquarium believes himself to be by magic hand transported into a real grotto within the bosom of the sea.

The Berlin Aquarium is ten times the size of that Hanover, twelve times that of Hamburg, and is at present the grandest of the world. Thirteen thousand persons can satisfy their curiosity at the same time, without hindering one another. There can be no crowding because the visitor always walks on, never going backward. The aisles for the public have a width of ten feet, which is more than sufficient for all practical purposes.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A very general determination prevails among her people that Western Pennsylvania shall enjoy the right to nominate the successor of Mr. Buckalew to the United States Senate. No one could be more aptly chosen for that position than Gen. J. K. Moorhead. The General has served his district in Congress for many years to the complete satisfaction of his constituents. He has secured for himself an eminent standing among his fellow-members, exerting a leading influence in the House. The interests specially affecting Pittsburgh have always commanded his earnest support. Indeed, it may be said, emphatically, that of all her many excellent Representatives, our city is indebted to no one of them to half the extent that she is to the General for his never-failing and successful endeavors in her behalf.

The General has been leadingly active, as is well-known, on the question of Protection. A laboring man himself, accustomed, through all the prime of his life, to hard manual toil, by the successful application of which he has made himself what he is, he has been honestly educated into a practical sympathy with the worker, which no change of circumstances can impair or diminish. This early training, moreover, served to develop and establish in him to an extraordinary degree, the quality of sound, sterling common sense. He knows how to think thoroughly and healthily, and how to put that thinking to practical use. Monuments to his capacity in this respect are prominently before his fellow-citizens, in many of the most valuable improvements in and about our city.

If a sound judgment, backed by an always uppermost honesty of purpose, if a perseverance in plans conceived and pushed to success with a zeal that never flags, and if devotion to the just claims of his own section, whether as a community or in the case of any of its individual constituents, may establish a claim upon the favorable consideration of the people, Gen. Moorhead is conspicuously entitled to it. Let our Legislature see that this claim is not disregarded.

O. P. Q.

THE METEORIC SHOWER.

We are indebted to the Allegheny Observatory for the annexed observations upon the extraordinary phenomena of the night of the 13th 14th:

The following is an abstract of observations made on the night of November 13th and 14th at the Allegheny Observatory:

The original determinations are for each successive five minutes, and the sums are as follows:

From 11h. 30m.	to 12h.	52	meteors	were	counted.
From 12h.	to 12h. 30m.	81	"	"	"
From 12h. 30m.	to 1h.	83	"	"	"
From 1h.	to 1h. 30m.	81	"	"	"
From 1h. 30m.	to 2h.	98	"	"	"
From 2h.	to 2h. 30m	61	"	"	"

At this time (half-past two on the morning of the 14th) the night had grown so heavy that observation was necessarily suspended. It was resumed at ten minutes before five, and continued for half an hour, when the increasing haze and the approach of dawn stopped it. This last half hour gave 101 meteors, in spite of the mist.

The above number (in all 557) was obtained in a total of three hours, and from the lack of observers represents only those which appeared in the East. It is an under estimate that fifteen hundred meteors fell during the night, which would have been visible to the naked eye in a clear sky, and it would probably be safe to put the number much higher.

The radient point was obtained from two star charts, sketched while the meteors were falling, and on which the direction of nineteen were laid down. The result of a computation made from the charts gives:

Right Ascension of Radiant, 152 deg. 30m.
Declination of Radiant, 22 deg. 20m.

Besides this the times of disappearance of several more conspicuous meteors were obtained within a second of the observatory sidereal time.

Other observations were made, of less interest to the public, but it may be mentioned that the prevailing color of the meteors was a bluish green, (in one beautiful instance a vivid emerald,) with occasional instances of a well-marked red.

The display was upon the whole a much more satisfactory one than had been anticipated, and is interesting as probably the last considerable appearance of the November meteors which this generation will witness.

Our Election Laws.

It is evident to every intelligent man that the election laws of Pennsylvania are inadequate to guard against frauds of the worst character. It is also well understood that although no man is presumed to know for whom his neighbor votes, yet this system of showing the head of a ticket at the polls is one by which the votes of ninety-nine men out of every hundred are known almost to a certainty. We have seen enough to know that the acceptance or rejection of a challenged vote is often decided by the appearance of the ticket to be deposited. This is all wrong. The great object of voting by ballot is to secure a vote without intimidation, and without any political huckster knowing for whom the vote is cast.

Another evil grows out of the fact, that there is no way of seeking a just remedy at law in case a fraudulent vote is deposited for a certain candidate. The law is not presumed to know how that vote was cast or for whom, and the result is that it has a tendency to defeat the will of the people. It should be in the power of the law to know how every man voted, should necessity arise wherein such knowledge would determine the choice of the people. But the question is—How can it be done? Easy enough. In the first place a registry is necessary ten days before an election. To secure that registry the tax provision of the constitution and the questions of residence and naturalization must be complied with. Every person registered must have the right to vote, whether he resorts to fraud or not to get on the registry list. The ward, township, city, county, district and State ticket must be printed on one piece of plain white paper (of a certain standard and uniform width, if necessary.) When the vote is offered, this ticket must be folded up so that no portion of the printed matter is visible, the number of the vote marked on the ticket by the inspector before it goes into the ballot box, and a corresponding number placed opposite the name of the person so voting, on the registry list. Thus—if the thirty-fifth voter presents himself to vote number thirty-five is placed upon the outside of his ticket, and number thirty-five opposite his name on the list. After the polls are closed the registrar takes his book and deposits it with the county clerk for safe keeping—the registrar having, previous to the election, made a duplicate of it. The polls being closed, the official count is made and the tikets filed upon a string prepared for the purpose, after which they are carefully made in a package in the presence of the election officers and carefully sealed and packed in charge of an officer of the county, who shall keep the same under lock for the space of one year, or longer if necessary.

Now we will suppose a case of "contest" is made, on the ground that frauds have been committed in the registration. A. has been unlawfully registered, as can be proven beyond a doubt. B. contests the election of C. on that ground. If the fraud is proven the file of tickets and the registrar's book are produced in the court. Opposite the name of A. is found number 350, (as the case may be), and then the ticket numbered 350 is produced from the file, and the candidate for whom this fraudulent vote was cast ascertained at once, and the vote for the candidate corrected accordingly. By this simple means fraudulent voting could not be successfully carried on, nor could the will of the majority of the honest voters be thwarted by the ballot box stuffers and repeaters. A "contest" would be reduced to a mathematical certainty and justice secured to all concerned.

We do not make these suggestions in any party spirit nor with the hope of benefiting any particular party; but we make them in order that the incessant cry of "fraud" may be effectually stopped. In Illinois, where a similar law is in operation, such a thing as a contested election is seldom heard of, and when it is, it is disposed of in the manner above indicated.—Reading Gazette, (Dem.)

IS SICKNESS AVOIDABLE?

Thousands toss on sick-beds to-day who might have been well and hearty, had they taken due precautions for the preservation of that most precious of earthly blessings, a sound mind in a sound body. Sickness, to a greater extent than most people suppose, is avoidable. When the body is languid, the spirits depressed, and the nervous system unnaturally sensitive, it should be taken for granted that mischief is brewing. These hints and warnings, vouchsafed as such by a kind Providence, ought not to be disregarded. If they are slighted, as is too generally the case, the next thing may be a fever, a severe billious attack, or some other form of acute disease. They indicate as clearly as if the intimation were given in articulate language, that the animal functions are disordered, and the system debilitated. Under these circumstances, the ONLY THING TO BE DONE IS TO REGULATE AND RESTORE, and the BEST REGULATING AND RESTORATIVE PREPARATION EVER USED FOR THE PREVENTION OF SICKNESS is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. In this way, billious remittent fever, chills and fever, spasms, nervous paroxysms, violent attacks of indigestion, and all the ordinary epidemics, may almost certainly be averted. They are usually preceded by the symptoms described, and surely it is wisdom to forestall them by resorting to an antidote at once harmless, agreeable and invigorating. Most assuredly, it will soon dissipate the unpleasant feelings referred to; which, of course, is desirable, even if they were not likely to lead to something worse. The close of the Fall is usually accompanied by unhealthy fogs and violent atmospheric changes, and it is therefore a season when in vigoration is particularly needed.

LET ANY ONE TRY A FEW BOTTLES OF DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE AND IT WILL ESTABLISH ITS MERITS BEYOND CONTROVERSY.

We feel, in whatever we say in its behalf, that we are conferring a benefit upon thousands of people who would be benefitted by its use. Take any large audience or gathering of people, pay attention for a moment, and see if one out of every ten is not afflicted with a cough. There is no cough without some difficulty of the throat or lungs—trifling it may be at the outset, but gradually growing more and more fearful, until the constitution, at last, is made to succumb to its ravages; and what would have yielded in the beginning to a few doses of medicine has become a fearful lesion, involving life itself. No one can be too careful at this season of the year, to the first premonitors of pulmonary disease, and when a remedy like the one we have named, is within the means of all, the salutary advice which we have given should not be disregarded. Sold at the great Medicine Depot, 140 Wood street,

A Living Headless Child.

The Deposit (N. Y.,) Courier is responsible for the following marvellous story:

In the vicinity of Spoon river, in Illinois, is a child that was born and has lived five years without a head. Mrs. ——, the mother, is a widow of a soldier, formerly living in Marshall county, who enlisted in the Sixty-fifth, or Scotch regiment, and was killed at the battle of Devington, Mo. She was standing beside her husband during the engagement, when a cannon ball carried his head completely away, his body falling into her arms and covering her with blood. The shock affected her greatly. When her child was born there was not a semblance of a head about it. The limbs are perfectly developed, the arms long, and the shoulders, where the head and neck should be, smoothly rounded off.

But the most surprising thing of all is that the face is situated in the breast. Of course, there being no neck, the power of turning its head is wanting, except as the whole body is moved; but this difficulty is overcome by the singular faculty it possesses of turning its eyes in their sockets, enabling it to see quite as well on either side as those most perfectly formed. The upper portion of its body is white as the purest Caucasian; from the waist downward is blood red. This strange creature, now an active boy five years old, as if to compensate for his deformity, possesses the most clear and bird like tones ever listened to, singing with singular correctness every thing it may hear, and its voice at this early age accomplishes two octaves easily.

PROPOSAL.

The Commissioners appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of locating and building a

HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE,

for the Northern District of Pennsylvania, having selected a site on the Susquehanna river in the vicinity of Danville, Montour county, Pennsylvania, will receive proposals until at noon, for the erection and construction of a Hospital with all its appurtenances upon said site in accordance with all the plans and specifications of John McArthur, Junior, Architect, adopted by them and approved by the Governor.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24th, 1868,

The plans and specifications can be examined at the office of the Architect, No. 205 SOUTH SIXTH STREET, Philadelphia, every day, (except Sunday,) between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., until the time above mentioned for receiving bids.

Parties making Proposals, must furnish sureties, whose responsibility to the amount of $10,000 shall be certified to before a Justice of the Peace, that they will, in case their bill is accepted enter into a contract, within ten days from the time of opening the bids, with satisfactory security to the amount of $25,000 that the same will be fulfilled in a complete and satisfactory manner.

Proposals to be considered must be in accordance with the printed form adopted by the Commissioners, which can be obtained from either of the Commissioners, the Superintendent of the Hospital or at the office of the Architect.

All bidders desiring information of the site are referred to Dr. S. S. Schultz, Superintendent of the Hospital, at Danville.

Proposals must be marked as such and sent to Isaac X. Grier, Esq., Danville, Pennsylvania, in whose office the bids will be opened in presence of such bidders as may be present on the evening of Tuesday, November 24, 1868.

The Commissioners reserve the right at their discretion to reject any or all bids not deemed to the interest of the Commonwealth or otherwise satisfactory to them.

EXCELLENT SECURITY.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

THIRTY YEAR, SIX PER CENT

GOLD BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific Railroad Co.,

These Bonds are the duly authorized and accredited obligations of one of the most responsible Corporations of the American Continent, and are secured by an absolute first lien upon the valuable grants, franchises, railroad equipment, business, etc., of the best portion of the extending eastwardly from the navigable waters of the Pacific Coast to the lines now rapidly building from the Eastern States.

They bear Six per cent. interest per annum in gold, AND BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE EXPRESSLY MADE "PAYABLE IN UNITED STATES GOLD COIN."

The semi-annual Coupons are payable, July 1st and January 1st in New York City.

The purchaser is charged the accrued interest from the date of the last paid Coupon, at the CURRENCY RATE ONLY.

This issue of Bonds constitutes one of the LARGEST AND MOST POPULAR CORPORATE LOANS of the country, and therefore will be constantly dealt in.

The greater portion of the loan is now in the hands of steady investors; and it is probable that before many months, when the Road is completed and the Loan closed, THE BONDS WILL BE EAGERLY SOUGHT FOR AT THE HIGHEST RATES.

They are issued ONLY AS THE WORK PROGRESSES, and to the same extent only as the U. S. Subsidy Bonds granted by the Government to the Pacific Railroad Companies.

Nearly FIVE HUNDRED MILES of the road are now built, and the grading is well advanced on two hundred and fifty miles additional.

The THROUGH LINE ACROSS THE CONTINENT will be completed by the middle of next year, when the Overland travel will be very large.

The local business alone, upon the completed portion, is so heavy, and so advantageous, that the gross earnings average MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A MILLION IN GOLD PER MONTH, of which 35 per cent. only is required for operating expenses.

The net profit upon the Company's business on the completed portion, is about double the amount of annual interest liabilities to be assumed thereup, on, and will yield a SURPLUS OF NEARLY A MILLION IN GOLD after expenses and interest are paid—even if the through connection were not made.

The best lands, the richest mines, together with the largest settlement and nearest markets, lie along this portion of the Pacific Railroad, and the FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF BUSINESS thereon will be proportionably great.

From these considerations it is submitted that the

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD

secured by a First Mortgage upon so productive a property are among the most promising and reliable securities now offered. No better Bonds can be made.

A portion of the remainder of this Loan is now offered to investors.

At 103 Per Cent. and Accrued Interest, in Currency,

The Bonds are of $1,000 each.

☞ The Company reserve the right to advance the price at any time; but all orders actually in transitu at the time of any such advance will be filled at present price. At this time they pay more than 8 per cent. upon the investment, and have, from National and State laws, guarantees peculiar to themselves.

We receive all classes of Government Bonds at their full market rates, in exchange for the Central Pacific Railroad Bonds, thus enabling the holders to realize from 5 TO 10 PER CENT. PROFIT, and keep the principal of their investment equally secure.

Orders and inquiries will receive prompt attention. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, etc., giving a full account of the Organization, Progress, Business and Prospects of the Enterprise furnished on application. Bonds sent by return Express at our cost.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 16, 1868.

The gold market was very much excited to-day, caused by war rumors from Europe and the efforts of a bull clique to assist them in rising the value of their inflated stocks. The market opened at 135⅞, declined to 135⅝, advanced to 136, from there to 137, and declined te 136¼@136⅜, with a strong upward tendency. Importers and parties who are not absolutely compelled to buy keep off the market, as, no doubt, lower quotations will be made within a few days. Gold was nat as scarce when the banks held but eight millions as it is now when they have sixteen millions, and the Treasury is not selling any for the present.

Government bonds have been firm today, and advanced from 109½, for new bonds, to 110⅓. The market, however, is dull, and few purchasers are in the market. Unless the locking up greenback process is resorted to again, bonds will command higher quotations, as the quotations have advanced in Europe about one per cent.

Stocks are excited and much higher: it is reported that this is only the basis of a general rise, and much higher prices are looked for. There are parties who maintain that 135 will be the ruling quotation of New York Central, and 75 for Erie; Fort Wanye is firmly held, and large purchasers were made within the last few days. Cleveland is strong, and the Express shares have advanced from 1 to 1½ per cent. Mining shares are neglected.

Money is quite easy, and can be had at 8 per cent. on good paper.

Business is again dull; the disturbances in the value of currency keep business men back, and makes them careful in their engagements.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 136⅜; Eighty-one's, 114; Five Twenties, 1862, 109⅜; do, 1864, 107½; do, 1865, 107½; do, 1865, new, 110¼; do, 1867; 110¼; do, 1868, 110½; Ten Forties, 105; Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburg, 85¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 108⅜; Chicago & Rock Island, 106¼; Chicago & North Western, 85; do Preferred, 87; Michigan Southern, 84; Reading, 99⅜; Erie, 50¼; New York Central, 123; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 30⅝; Western Union Telegraph Co., 36⅜; Merchants Union Express Co., 21¼; Pacific Mail, 116½; Adams, 48¼; Mining shares—Gregory, 4,80; Quartz Hill, 85; Smith & Parmele, 4,00; Gregory, 10.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 16, 1868.

CATTLE.

The supply of Cattle on sale to-day fell considerably short of that of last week, though it was, nevertheless, fully up to the demand, and the market was not as brisk as it might have been. The whole number on sale to-day footed up about eleven hundred head, against some 1,500 head last week; there were but very few foreign buyers in attendance, and, as a consequence, the butchers had it pretty much their own way. The quality of the Cattle was about up to the usual standard, though there was a small number of the finest Cattle on sale we have noticed here for several weeks; on the other hand, however, there was a large number of rough old cows and steers, some of which were not fit for slaughtering. Stock Cattle were in pretty good supply, and feeders, we apprehend, had no difficulty in getting all they wanted, and that, too, at very low figures.

As will be seen by reference to report of sales, prime to extra stock sold at from 7½ to 8—it should be borne in mind that the number sold at the outside figure was very small. Medium butchers stock to good may be quoted at 6 to 7.

Smith & Blue sold 19 head cows and heifers at 3,25 to 4.

L. & J. Shamberg 32 head good Chicago steers at 6,25 to 7,50; 18 head pretty good steers, from Green county, (Penna.) at 5,50 to 6,50.

S. Marks & Bro. 75 head Penna. and Western heifers and steers at 3,75 to 7,25.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 100 head mixed stock, on commission, at 3 to 6,40.

Hedges & Taylor 175 head of common to medium Indiana stock, on commission, at 4,50 to 6.

N. Carr sold 25 head, on commission, at 4 to 5,75.

Greenwald & Kahn 80 head at 5 to 7c.

P. Sheitlemantle sold 9 head smallish stock, from Butler county, at 3 to 5.

A. N. Wick & Co. 67 head Butler county cows and heifers ot 3,50 to 4,50.

E. Katz 18 head Tuscarawas county, Ohio, scalawags at 2,50 to 4; 17 head fairish steers and heifers at 4 to 5,50.

L. Rothchilds & Co. 28 head Chicago stock at 5,50 to 6,25.

Peter Hartman 30 head Green county stock at 4 to 6,90.

Kraus & Haas 54 head Washington county steers and heifers at 5,50 to 6,50.

M. Verner 30 head Washington county steers at 5,50 to 6,25.

Traurman & Lobman 25 head Washington county steers at 5,50 to 6,90; 25 Chicago steers at 6,50 to 7,50.

Keefer & Zeigler 25 head steers at 6,50 to 7,75; 12 head Washington county steers at 5 to 6,50.

Jas. McAllister 22 head of commonish cows, heifers and steers, on commisaion, at 4,50 to 6.

Myers & Needy 23 head of mixed stock, from Belmont county, Ohio, for Adams, at 3,75 to 5,50; 16 head of good Ohio steers and heifers at 6 to 7,50; 35 prime Ohio steers (including 15 to Andy Ackley at 8); balance at an average of 7,75; one extra bullock, weighing 1,500, at 9.

Hazlewood & Blackstock 16 head Columbiana county, Ohio, steers and cows, for Newton, at 5 to 7; 21 head of commonish stock, for Conkle, from Crawford county, Ohio, at 3,50 to 4,50; 21 head of steers and heifers, for Charles Shomaker, at 5,50 to 6,80.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The supply was again light this week, only reaching a little over three thousand head, and while the market was more active, buyers taking hold with less hesitation, prices, as yet, have undergone but little change. The great proportion of the Sheep offering are of the scalawag order, and this is the kind that seems to be most sought after as there are a large number of scalawag butchers, in the business just now. As will be seen by reference to sales, the great proportion of the Sheep on sale to-day, sold at from $1 to $2 per head: Some few extra bringing $3,50 to $4,50.

Walters & Fowler 300 at $1,00 to $2,00 per head.

P. Sheitemantle 400 at $1,00 to $1,70 per head.

D. Taylor to Fletcher 214 at $1,30 per head.

Adam Eckert 97 at $1,75 to 4,50 per head.

John Young 221 at $1 per head.

Stakely & Bro. 325 at $1 to 2,25 per head.

C. Beeler 100 to $1 to 1,75 per head.

J. R. Pringle 231 at 50 cents, to $1,25 per head.

Alexander 106 at $1,95 to 3,25 per head.

Quigley 97 at $1,25 per head.

C. Maggi 35 at $3,50 per head.

Hafner 70 at $1,25 to 2,75 per head.

Seymour 39 at 3,10 per head.

Garwin 150 at 50 cents, to 2,50 per head.

McAllister to Gallagher 126 at 1,30 per head.

McAllester to Reichter 96 at 1,20 per head.

James Shaw 85 at an average of 1,50 per head.

R. Stevenson 112 at an average of 2,75 per head.

I. C. McNeese 220 at an average of $1 to 1,25 per head.

Burgher to Beelsteen 169 head, at private terms.

HOGS.

There seems to be consideralbe competition in the Hog business at these yards, and while it is not very favorable for dealers, it is all right for the butchers. The number on sale to day was rather larger than usual, but with a good retail demand, the sales were larger than usual, and prices were sustained.

Seymour to J. Rothchilds 39 at 7,20.

Myers & Needy to Rothchilds 49 at 8,50.

E. H. Davis to Emerick & Co. 11 at 8,00.

Rose to Emerick & Co. 15 at 8,50.

Emerick & Co. retailed 300 at 8,00 to 9,50

Nicholas Carr retailed 120 at 7,50 to 8,50.

C. Boyer 200 at 8,50 to 9,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 16, 1868.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was exceedingly quiet to-day, but a single sale reported, 2,500 bbls, (40 to 47 gravity) seller's option, until January 1st, at 9¾c. Forty to forty-five gravity is still held firmly at ten cents, and it is very scarce; both here and above. It is alleged, and with good reason, too, that there is too much difference between the price of Crude and Refined, and, therefore, it is almost inevitable, that the former must give way or the latter advance. As it is now there is a difference of fully a quarter between 40 to 45 and 40 to 47, and refiners, as a general thing, would rather pay a quarter more for the former.

REFINED.

The Refined market was considerably firmer to-day, but so far as we could learn, there was but comparatively little done. It is said that there was considerable inquiry for this month's delivery, but sellers were hard to find, and there but one or two sales effected, and these at the request of the parties interested, were kept private. Spot oil was quoted at 26¼c, which is an advance of one-half a cent, compared with Saturday, when sales were effected at 25¾c. The last half of November is firm but unchanged at 26¼ to 26¾c, and 26¼ is bid for December. January to June may be quoted at 28c; and July to December at 32½@33c. We do not expect to see many new contracts made for this or next month unless prices should improve materially, as refiners, generally, feel like closing their business with the close of the year, and to have no oil on hand on the first of January, or as little as possible.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Walking Horses.

The best gait a horse ever had for every day use is a good walk. It is a gait that not one in ten possesses. Colts are not trained to walk in all of the Eastern States. Young America wants more speed. Kentucky has more good walking horses than any other State, for there horseback traveling has long been in fashion for men and men and women, over a country where muddy roads, at times, render any other gait impossible, and so horses have been bred for the Saddle and trained to a walking gait. This is also the case in all the Western States, and perhaps might have been so in New England when our grandmothers rode to meeting on a pillion behind our grandfathers. But one-horse wagons have put horseback riding out of fashion' and now a good walking horse is more rare than one that can trot a mile in 2:40.

At the Springfield (Mass.) Horse Show of 1860, the writer was one of the committee to award prizes to the best walking horses. Out of seventeen entered, the committee found but one which was considered a first rate walker. This was a Morrill mare, which walked five miles an hour with ease. Two others were fair walkers, and the rest knew no gait that could be called walking. At the New York State Fair the same state of facts was again developed. A letter from Wisconsin says: "I think horses trained to walk fast would be a greater benefit to our farmers in general than fast trotters, as almost all their work has to be done with a walk."

I once knew a man in Massachusetts who, before the railroads were built, kept from two to four teams at work on the road, and never allowed them to trot all, and made the distance in quicker time than his neighbors, who made their horses trot at every convenient place. He said that when a horse commenced to walk after a trot, he walked much slower than his usual gait, if kept on a walk, and thereby lost more than he gained. Will farmers think of this, and pay more attention to walking horses?—Farmers' Home Journal.

OATS.

Oats are, of course, a most important article in stable management; and these, as everything a horse eats, ought to be of the finest quality. It may be thought that the weight of oats is not a matter of great consequence, nor, in fact, is it to cart or common horses; but it is quite the reverse to such as we are particular about as to stamina, wind and condition. Horses are generally fed by measure, not by weight; consequently in giving light oats, we actually rob the horse of his proper quantum of meal, giving him husks instead; and if we feed him by weight, going on the principle that a pound of feathers and a pound of lead are both a pound, the principle would be a very bad one as regards oats; for in that case, though the horse gets his pound weight, if he gets an undue portion of it in husks he is only filled with that which is no use to him; so in every way light oats are bad for choice horses.

GROWTH OF WOOL IN THE UNITED STATES.

The Rutland County (Vt.) Journal says: The history of the growth of wool is very curious. Fifty years ago not a pound of fine wool was grown in the United States, in Great Britain, or in any other country except Spain. In 1784 a small flock was sent to the Elector of Saxony as a present from the King of Spain, whence the entire product of Saxony wool, now of such immense value. In 1809, during the invasion of Spain by the French, some of the valuable crown flock were sold to raise money. The American Consul, Jarvis, at Lisbon, purchased fourteen hundred head and sent them to this country. A portion of this pure and unmixed Merino flock is still to be found in Vermont at this time. Such was the origin of the immense flock of fine wool sheep in the United States at the present time.

FATTENING CATTLE.

Fattening animals of all kinds lay on flesh very rapidly as the weather grows cooler. Keep beeves and sheep in pasture as long as the feed is good, but yard them at night, and feed twice a day with grain, if they are to be marketed soon; otherwise simply feed soa s to be sure they are constantly gaining. Pigs should have cooked food and plenty of it. Push forward their fattening as rapidly as possible, for at no season will they gain faster. Keep them clean and give them warm sheltered nests. Poultry also gain very rapidly, and it is best to fatten them on scalded meal, with corn, wheat screenings and other food in addition, at daylight in the morning and late in the afternoon.

USEFUL RECEIPTS.

Here is the way to Prepare Grapes for winter.—Notice the stem of the grape and you will find that it is dried and withered near the branch; cut in dry weather as near the branch as possible; remove all imperfect fruit, and pack them in boxes; with layers of the nicest wadding between them, not suffering the fruit to touch; paper should be placed between the grapes and the wadding, as the cotton often sticks to the grapes, and is troublesome to pick off. Keep the grapes in a cool place to preserve the fruit from the unpleasant flavor of the cotton. Should the season be backward and the stem still green, cut the grapes as close to the branch as possible, and dip the end of the stem into melted sealing wax immediately. Grapes preserve beautifully, by pursuing this course, most of the winter.

Fruit Raised Pudding.—When baking, take two and a half cups of light dough, one of sugar, hardly three-fourths of a cup of butter, two eggs, half a teaspoonful of soda, one glass of wine or brandy, cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg, being careful not to let one spice predominate, a half pound of washed currants, the same of stoned raisins, and a quarter of a pound of citron chopped fine; let it stand until light, in the pudding dish; bake carefully so as not to form a heavy crust; turn it out when baked, and pour over it, when hot, a rich wine sauce; this will be found excellent. It must be started very early in the morning. If home made yeast is used, the dough can be saved until the next day. Sweeten it with soda before mixing in the other ingredients, and allow it to rise again.

To Pickle Beet Roots.—This vegetable makes an excellent pickle, and from the brightness of its color has a very pretty effect in a glass pickle dish or jar. Wash the beet perfectly; do not cut off any of the fibrous roots, as this would allow the juice to escape, and thus the coloring would be lost. Put into sufficient water to boil it, and when the skin will come off it will be sufficiently cooked, and may be taken out and laid upon a cloth to cool. Having rubbed off the skin, cut the beet into thick slices, put it into a jar, and pour over it cold vinegar, with an ounce of whole black pepper, and an equal weight of dry ginger, and let it stand until quite cold. The jar should be kept closely corked.

Quince and Apple Jelly.—Cut small and core an equal weight of tart apples and quinces. Put the quinces in a preserving kettle, with water to cover them, and boil till soft; add the apples, still keeping water to cover them, and boil till the whole is nearly a pulp. Put the whole into a jelly-bag, and strain without pressing. To each quart of juice add two pounds of lump sugar. Boil together one hour.

For Boils.—Make a plaster of molasses and flour, or honey and flour, and apply it as often as they get dry. If very painful, make a soft poultice of bread and milk, moistened with volatile liniment and laudanum. This will ease pain, allay inflammation, and hasten a cure. Remedies for cleansing the blood should be freely used.

Beef-Stake smothered with Onions.—Cut up six onions very fine; put them in a sauce-pan with two cupsful of hot water, about two ounces of good butter, some pepper and salt; dredge in a little flour. Let it stew until the onions are quite soft; then have the stake broiled, put into the sauce-pan with the onions; let it simmer about ten minutes, and send it to the table very hot.

Baked Ham.—Most persons boil ham. It is much better baked, if baked right. Soak it for an hour in clean water, and wipe it dry; next spread it all over with thin batter; and then put it into a deep dish with sticks under it, to keep it out of the gravy. When it is fully done take off the skin and batter crusted upon the flesh side, and set it away to cool.

To Remove "Proud Flesh."—Pulverize loaf sugar very fine, and apply it to the part affected. This is a new and easy remedy, and is said to remove it entirely, without pain. It has been practiced in England for years.

For Stiff Joints.—Take strong salt and water, or brine, beef's gall, one gill each, four yolks of eggs, beat up; mix and shake them well together; apply three times a day. Discutient ointments are also good.

Indian Cake.—Scald one cup of Indian meal with one pint of milk, two eggs, one table spoonful of sugar, butter size of a walnut, one-half teaspoonful of soda. Bake half an hour.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

A Virginia farmer says that, with sheep and clover, he can make any land productive, unless it has the barrenness of the sands of Sahara.

Some farmers commence business in the morning in such a hurry that night overtakes them before they have determined what to do first.

The impression, somewhat prevalent, that soft corn is better for fattening stock than the matured portion has nothing in nature to support it.

Working horses, when in the stable, are better without a blanket than with it. When driven hard and standing out the blanket should be used.

Swinging a hat or screaming at a runaway horse is about as sensible as would be the application of burning straw to a burning building.

Somebody has denominated Indian corn the great farm lever. It is certainly a useful product, but not quite so good for bread as wheat, to a Northern palate.

It is contended by some that following corn with oats or barley, and then with wheat, is not in any sense a rotation, as all these belong to the same family.

It is said the best strawberry plants come from the third and fourth sets of runners, and that the first and second sets should be cut off.

Rhubarb requires a deeply tilled and very rich soil to afford a supply of nutriment sufficient to enable it to produce the immense crop of large succulent leaves which are removed from it in the season. The leaves should not be taken off in August or September, and a good top-dressing of manure should be given before winter.

FOR SALE.

A FARM OF 30 ACRES, on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, 27 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa. The improvements are a fine two-story brick house, with ten large rooms and hall. A large frame bank barn, with No. 1 stabling, and all other outbuildings in complete order. One of the best of orchards, of all kinds of fruit. The soil is rich new bottom. This property adjoins the village of Buena Vista, and has the advantage of churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., and will be sold at the low price of $15,000. The improvements alone are worth at least all that is asked for the property, to say nothing about the land, which is worth for garden purposes at least $10,000. For full particulars call at my office, or WILLIAM A. BELL, Esq., on the premises.

ALSO, A FARM OF 40 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, about 15 miles from the city. The improvements are a new stone dwelling, with eight rooms; a good barn and other outbuildings. This property is offered at a very low price. Call and secure yourself a good bargain.

ALSO, A FARM OF 120 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 17½ miles from the city, on the Connellsville Railroad, opposite Elrod's Station, within 20 minutes' walk of the Station. The improvements are a frame house containing four rooms and kitchen, with a good cellar underneath; very good barn and other outbuildings. A No. 1 orchard, containing about 200 fruit bearing trees, all in good condition. 90 acres cleared land, the residue in good timber, underlaid with 3 acres of coal.

ALSO, A TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE adjoining the Borough of Elizabeth, Allegheny county, Pa., containing 4 roams and kitchen. Lot 60 feet front by 126 back to an alley. A good Stable, wash house, bake-oven and other outbuildings. I am authorized to sell it at the low price of $1,800, on good terms.

ALSO, In the Borough of Elizabeth, a good two-story BRICK HOUSE, containing 4 rooms. Lot 120 feet square. Will be sold at the exceedingly low price of $2,500, on easy terms.

ALSO, My Farm, known by the name of "Willow Banks," situated on the Connellsville Railroad, 17 miles from the city, containing 79 ACRES, all in good condition. The improvements are a No. 1 brick house, two stories high, newly painted, containing six rooms, two halls running full length of the house. The house is situated on a beautiful knoll, is surrounded by fruit trees, shrubbery, vines and flowers, with a graded avenue running to the Yough. River. Also, a large frame bank barn, smoke house, wash house, coal house, bake-oven and other outbuildings, and a never-failing well of water. Two large orchards, containing from six to seven hundred fruit trees, nearly all in good bearing condition. This farm abounds in small fruits, viz: Currants, raspberries, gooseberries, and a fine large strawberry patch, which, in connexion with the richness of the soil and nearness to the city, makes it very desirable for gardening purposes. Very convenient to schools, churches, stores and blacksmith shop.

ALSO, A FARM OF 158 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 31 miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville Railroad, at Suter station. The improvements are a common one house, a good frame barn, with stabling for ten horses; a corn crib and wagon shed; good orchard of fruit trees; fencing very good. 120 acres cleared, the residue in heavy timber land. This farm is valuable—first, for its excellent soil; secondly, its timber; and thirdly, it contains more limestone than any other farm in Pennsylvania, all accessible. The lower vein of limestone is 40 feet thick; several other veins ranging from 3½ to 6 ft. in thickness, lie under the whole farm. For particulars enquire of ELI SUTER, Esq., at Suter Station, or at my office.

ALSO, 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard: one hundred and twenty acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered, and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm.

ALSO, A beautifully situated tract of 60 ACRES of valuable land, under good fencing, situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a township road, 7 measured miles from the Market House, Allegheny City. This tract is well adapted for a garden or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats, for persons doing business in the city.

ALSO, The best farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., 4 miles from Western Penna. R. R. at Livermore Station, containing 300 ACRES—225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics; a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary outbuildings, all in good order; 5 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 4 feet vein of coal (now open,) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. The whole together—house, fencing, soil, nice living surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.,—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

ALSO, FARM AND MILLS. A small tract of 60 ACRES of very valuable land in Derry township Westmoreland county, Pa., well fenced and in a high state of cultivation, with new frame dwelling, and other outbuildings; a new grist and saw mill complete, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the needed fixtures, in good order, and a young orchard of choice fruits; lane is all underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened and worked, at the back of the mill, and limestone in abundance. Call soon and secure a good bargain.

ALSO, FARM OF 160 ACRES, situated immediately upon the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Blairsville Intersection, 54 miles east of the city. The improvements are a two-story stone house of 8 rooms, a No. 1 barn, 45 by 65 feet, the best of stabling and other outbuildings. The land lies well, is well fenced, is in good farming order, and will be sold very cheap if applied for soon.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The livery stables were well patronized last Sunday.

There are eighty inmates in the Soldiers' Home at the present time.

According to the almanac we should now be reveling amid the glories of Indian summer.

Boy Wanted—To do work in the Composing room. Make application after two o'clock to-day.

The foundation walls of the new Merchants and Manufacturers Bank on Fourth avenue, are rapidly approaching completion.

It is rumored in fairy land that Kriss Kringle and Santa Claus are making extensive preparations for their next visit to this mundane sphere.

The assertion, "stone walls do not a prison make, etc. etc.," had one hundred and ten emphatic arguments against it behind the bars of the county jail yesterday.

"The melancholy days are come—ing, the saddest of the year"—the turkey's lament when informed of the approach of Thanksgiving and the Holidays.

Handsome Profit.—It is stated that a Fair held for charitable purposes in this vicinity lately realized, after all expenses had been paid, the munificent sum of thirty-five cents.

There is a rumor afloat that the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, near the Outer Depot, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will be prepared for the use of the City High School.

Black Veil.—A few days ago Miss Hannah O'Neill, of this city, and Miss Martha J. Martin, of Baltimore, received the black veil at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy in Baltimore.

Committed.—Coroner Clawson yesterday committed William Groves to jail to answer the charge of shooting John Dearr, in Temperanceville, the particulars of which we published yesterday.

Rare Chance to Buy Real Estate,—On our fifth page will be found an advertisement of an elegant residence for sale. This property can be bought very low. For particulars, see advertisement.

Larceny.—The tobacco store of Jacob Waitzell, on Fourth avenue, was on Sunday afternoon robbed of merchandize to the amount of ten dollars, during the absence of the proprietor and his family. The thieves left no clue which would lead to their detection.

In Buffalo a man was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment for borrowing an umbrella without the consent of the owner. If that had been the law in our vicinity, perhaps we would not now be mourning the mysterious disappearance of one of those useful articles.

Temperance Meeting.—The Allegheny Temperance League will meet this evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the East Commons Methodist Church. An address will be delivered by the Rev. S. F. Scovel. Subject—"Are the social uses of society favorable to Temperance?" A cordial invitation is extended to all classes of our citizens to be present.

Resulted Fatally.—The little girl who was injured by being run over by a street car in Birmingham, an account of which we published yesterday, we learn died from the effects of the injuries received yesterdey morning. The name of the child was Powell, and she resided with her parents on Carson street, in Smoky Hollow. Coroner Clawson will hold an inquest on the body this morning.

Slight Fire.—A slight fire occurred yesterday morning, about eleven o'clock, on Second evenue, near Brewery street. The roof of the dwelling of Richard Jones caught fire from a spark from an adjoining chimney. The alarm was sounded from box 41, and the fire department responded promptly, but the flames were subdued without bringing the department into service. The loss is very trifling.

Larceny—Mrs. A. J. Fisk yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Mary Ramage with larceny. It appears that the accused was employed as a chambermaid in a boarding house in Allegheny, in which the prosecutrix boarded, and it is alleged by Mrs. Fisk that the girl took from her room a hair watch chain and a gold locket, valued at forty dollars. A warrant was issued for her arrest.

Mr. W. A. Gildenfenney sends us from his well-known Fifth avenue book store, "The Modern Pocket Hoyle," a neat compact book of reference and authority for card players. Unlike the original Hoyle, this book is compiled for American use and gives the rules of the various games as recognized in this country, which renders it much more serviceable than any of the foreign publications on the same subject.

Cross Suits.—Mary Henry alleges that James Dunn met her on the street and endeavored to get her to accompany him to a house of ill repute. Failing in his designs, Mary states that he knocked her down and kicked her in the side. James alleges on the other hand that Mary first attacked him, by slapping his mouth. Both parties entered cross suits against each other for assault and battery, before Alderman Strain, upon which they were required to give bail for Court.

Selling Liquor to Minors.—Alderman Strain yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of William Barnes, charged on oath of John Shovelin, with selling liquor to minors. It is alleged that the accused keeps a saloon near the Mansion House, and that, to render the saloon more attractive, he is in the habit of giving concerts in the place, to which a small admittance fee is charged, and which attracts boys, who when inside are supplied with liquor as long as their money holds out.

A New Crib.—Mothers and nurses will be delighted with a new patent crib, which has just been introduced by Messrs. Lemon & Weis, the well known and popular furniture dealers, No. 118 Fourth street, and which is elsewhere advertised. It is just the thing, and will commend itself in stronger terms than we can use to those needing such articles of household furniture, Messrs. Lemon & Weis have also in store a magnificent stock of furniture, which they offer at very reasonable prices to their patrons.

Larceny of Wearing Apparel.—James Hartigan made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Bridget McMorris for larceny. Hartigan states that his wife, who is demented, was placed in the county jail one night for safe keeping, previous to her removal to the hospital, and while there Bridget, who was imprisoned for vagrancy, stole from her a silk hood, two shawls and other articles of wearing apparel, valued altogether at twenty-five dollars. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Trouble About a Horse.—John M. Sullivan made information yesterday before Alderman Strain against Jas. McCord, for false pretences. The prosecutor alleges that on the 11th day of January last the defendant purchased from him a horse, valued at $40, by representing that he was the owner of a valuable carriage, and that he would pay for the animal on the 18th of July. The payment of the money, it is alleged, has not yet been made, and Sullivan alleges further that upon inquiry he has ascertained that McCord was not the owner of any vehicle, as he represented. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused,

194. Fromm vs. Johnson, et al.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

The Court of Quarter Sessions met at ten o'clock yesterday morning, Judge Sterrett on the bench.

THE 8TH WARD ELECTION CASE.

Samuel Scott, Judge of Election in the Eighth ward, Pittsburgh, was placed upon trial on an indictment for refusing to receive the vote of James Quinn, at the State election, on the 13th of October. It appears that the vote of the prosecutor was challenged by a Mr. Owens, an elector of said ward, and that the officers of the election told Quinn to come into the room and bring evidence to show that he had a right to vote. The prosecutor, it appears, refused to be sworn, or at least he was not sworn as to his right to vote, nor did he produce any evidence to show that he was a qualified elector of said ward. The case was conducted by Mr. Swartzwelder and District Attorney Duff for the Commonwealth, and A. M. Brown, Esq., on behalf of the defendant. The testimony on both sides closed, and counsel agree to submit the case to the jury under the charge of the Court. The hour for adjournment having arrived, the Court stated that the charge to the jury would be made on the opening of Court this morning.

Court adjourned.

Caught a Tartar.

An information was made at the Mayor's office, yesterday, charging Mrs. Mary O'Neil with disorderly conduct. The accused resided in a court off Ann street, in the Sixth ward, and it is alleged that she was conducting herself in a very disorderly manner, to the great annoyance of her neighbors. A warrant was issued for her arrest and placed in the hands of officer Messner for execution. John at once repaired to the residence of the accused to make the arrest, which he expected to do without any trouble whatever, but before he had accomplished his task, to use his own expression, he "wished some 'nunner' man had dis warrant." When he arrived at the house he found the door barred and the occupants refused to let him in. He then went to a window and was in the act of entering the house through it, having the lower sash raised and having his head and shoulders and one leg inside, while the remainder was on the outside, when Mary, who up to this period had been concealed in a cupboard on the side of the room opposite the window, came out of her concealment and "went for him," after the manner of wild cats, scratching him about the face, pulling his hair, and biting him on the arms severely, while he was so situated that he could not get away from her and had the use of but one hand to defend himself against her ferocious attack, the other being engaged in holding up the window sash. After considerable trouble he succeeded in getting through the window and secured the woman, but not until he had received several severe scratches about the face and lost a considerable portion of his hair. He conducted her to the Mayor's office, but not alone, as she was the mother of a child about three month's old, which she insisted upon taking with her. After a hearing, the Mayor imposed a fine of five dollars and costs upon her, which she refused to pay, whereupon a commitment was made out and given to the officer, who very reluctantly undertook the task of taking his prisoner to jail, not from any sympathy he had for the woman, but he had not forgotten his experience while under the window. John is not the man to shirk his duty, however, and made an effort to conduct his prisoner to the hill, but "it could not be did." When he took hold of her with his hands, she took hold of his arm with her teeth, and succededed in biting a piece out of it. A compromise was effected at length, by which she was induced to go into a cell in the lock-up until her mother could be sent for. The mother at length came, and not having the money to pay the fine and costs, started out to get it, but had not returned at last accounts.

Somnambulistic.

A lady, whom we will call Mrs. Eliza Jones, residing on Beaver avenue, Sixth Ward, Allegheny, was awakened out of her sleep yesterday morning about four o'clock, by the appearance in her bed chamber of a white apparation which stalking through the door and approached the bed side. Startled half out of her senses the lady leaped from the couch, and seizing the sleeping form of her little daughter, made a rush to get out of the apartment. In her fright her foot tripped on the hearth rug and she was thrown heavily to the floor, her head striking the fire iron stand, which inflicted a severe though not a dangerous gash. The little girl in her arms was also wounded on the right cheek.

The thumping racket of falling humanity and fire irons added to the screams of the aforesaid humanity, was sufficent to bring the inmates of the house quickly to the scene, when the cause of the uproar was discovered. It seems that a sister of Mrs. Jones, who resides in Tamaqua, Illinois, was on a visit to her sister, and being a somnambulist, was making one of her usual nocturnal rounds, when she appeared, as stated, in the bedchamber of her sister. Upon being awakened, the sleepwalker was as much surprised as any one, and quite as much startled in discovering where she was. The excitement calmed down finally, and quiet once more reigned in Warsaw.

Shocking Accident—Two Men Instantly Killed.

Yesterday morning between seven and eight o'clock a shocking accident occurred at Johnstown, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, by which two men were hurried into eternity without a moment's warning. It seemed that the men, whose names were respectively Joseph Noble and David Bee, were employed in the ore bank of the Cambria Iron Works. At the time in question they had arranged the fuse for a blast, and were about leaving the place, after setting fire to the fuse, when the blast prematurely exploded, killing both men instantly. Mr. Bee was struck by a fragment of the ore, which nearly severed his head from the body. Mr. Noble was also struck by a fragment and his head crushed in. Both the bodies were mangled and lacerated in a terrible manner. The deceased were brothers-in-law, both married men, and leave families to mourn their awful death. The intelligence was first conveyed to this city by a telegraphic dispatch to a relative of the deceased, who started for the place on the first train thereafter.

War Among the Clothiers.

Jacob Steiner is employed as a salesman in the clothing store of Mr. Tobias, and Samuel Mockner officiates in a similar capacity in the establishment of Mr. Trauerman. The houses are located next door to each other on Sixth street. Yesterday the two gentlemen, salesmen, varied the monotony of their occupations by indulging in a little exhilarating excitement, which resulted in their simultaneous appearance before Alderman Humbert each charging the other with assault and battery. Jacob alleges that Samuel struck him in the mouth with his fist, while Samuel stoutly maintained that he was similarly abused by Jacob. They finally concluded to take the matter to court, and each gave bail accordingly for his appearaece at the proper time.

Fire at Sharpsburg.

The dwelling house of Mr. Wilhelm, located on Main street, Sharpsburg, took fire on Saturday morning about five o'clock, and was entirely consumed. A barrel of crude oil stored in the cellar by some means became ignited and exploded, and in a few minutes the building was in flames. Notwithstanding all the efforts of the citizens, the flames spread so rapidly that but a small portion of the furniture was saved. Among other articles burned was a drawer containing several hundred dollars in greenbacks. The property was uninsured. Mr. Wilhelm was employed as a nailor in one of the factories in the vicinity, and the loss will fall heavily upon him.

Twain's Lecture.

Mark Twain will draw probably one of the largest audiences ever assembled at the Academy, on Thursday night, on the occasion of his lecture under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association. He enjoys high reputation as a humorist among all our lecture goers, and unless he is exceedingly happy at the rostrum they will be somewhat disappointed, but the best way to ensure his happiness is to fill the house in such a manner as to make him feel that his genius is appreciated. The sale of secured seats will take place between seven and ten o'clock to-night, at the Library rooms of the Association, corner of St. Clair and Penn streets.

Allegheny County Workhouse.

We made a hurried and brief visit yesterday to the site of the new Workhouse. Not having seen it before we were surprised at the extent and progress of the work. The entire building, when finished, according to the plans, will consist of a large central edifice four stories high, having a front of one hundred feet and a depth of one hundred and twenty feet, divided into Offices, Library, Guard room, Chapel, School room, Hospital, Baths, Kitchen, Laundry, &c., and an eastern and western wing, each two hundred feet front, the western wing being designed for the males and the eastern for females. But the Commissioners who have charge of the work have attempted to erect for the present only the east wing, and a portion of the central edifice, all which would now be under roof but for the failure of the contractor for brick—it is, nevertheless, nearly ready for the roof, and will doubtless, be enclosed by the first of December. The foundation are as fine specimens of stone masonry as we have seen anywhere. The window hoods and sills, and caps of the pilasters are of dressed stone, and do great credit to the contractors, Messrs. Forester and Megraw. The walls are of brick, and appear to have been skillfully laid. Only well burned brick were permitted to be used, so that the buil ling is a fine specimen of mechanical skill and fidelity to contracts. The brick work is being done by the well known contractors Messrs. Phillips and Wallett, and under the superintendence of Mr. John McDonald. The entire building is on a plan by the eminent architects Barr & Moser.

The work already done has cost nearly $90,000, and has been contracted for at rates below the original estimates, thus evincing the care and circumspection of the Commissioners under whose general supervision the whole work is proceeding. The grounds on which the workhouse is to stand consist of fifty acres, about eight miles from Allegheny city, on the line of the Western Pennsylvana Railroad—it extends from the river across the track of the railway to the hilltop in the rear. The site is very eligible and the surface beautiful. There are on the ground several fine unfailing springs, affording an ample supply for the building for all time to come, of pure soft water. We will expect the county to avail itself of the cultivated taste of Wm. S. Bissell, Esq., one of the Commissioners, in the grading and adornment of the grounds in front of the workhouse. We have been so much instructed and gratified by our first visit to this noble enterprise of our county, that we propose to revisit it occasionally and advise our readers from time to time of the progress of the important work.

From the Seat of War.

From a reliable gentleman just arrived from the seat of war in Allegheny, we learn that the hog war is being carried on with great vigor on both sides. At latest accounts, however, the hogs seemed to be losing ground rapidly. In several pitched battles, though gallantly contending, they had been defeated and suffered great loss, many of their most prominent generals having been captured. A few hours before our informant left, fifteen, some of whom were numbered among their bravest leaders, were captured and taken to City Farm, which has been specially set apart as a place of confinement for them. In some places the hogs, driven to their last extremity, have entrenched themselves behind heavy barricades and in forts, which they deem impregnable, but their opponents, flushed with victory, propose to move immediately on these works, and talk quite boastfully of their expected triumph. Should they prove as successful as they expect, there will be no other alternative left for the hogs but the unconditional surrender which is now demanded of them, or extermination. They seem, however, determined to fight to the last in the maintenance of their rights, preferring death to the loss of their liberties. One foreign power, the Park Commission, has recognized them as belligerents, but this is rather to their damage, as this power is allied by a treaty offensive and defensive with their opponents. The exceeding bitterness of the strife is made manifest from the fact that their opponents, departing from all rules of civilized warfare, unblushingly offer a reward of one hundred cents for every hog prisoner brought within their lines.

Taken altogether, the situation of affairs is greatly against the hogs, and it looks as if they would be conquered; but, perhaps, a change favorable to them may yet take place. The darkest hour always precedes the dawn.

The Cathedral Spire.

The spire at the Cathedral has at length been so far completed as to admit of the iron cross upon its pinnacle, and that was placed in position yesterday under the superintendence of Mr. Bartberger, the architect, who, after the ponderous affair had been raised to the top of the spire it is hereafter to adorn and had been firmly secured to its place and the lightning rod attached, ascended to the top of the cross and secured the point to the rod, which extends several feet above the cross.

The cross was manufactured by Messrs. Marshall, of Diamond alley, and weighs eight hundred pounds. It is constructed of cast iron and is fourteen feet in heighth, and the cross bar is six feet nine inches. The necessary arrangements have been made for lighting it with gas, and the pipes are already on the ground and will be attached as soon as the machinery can be arranged for that purpose. There will be about two hundred and seventy-five gas jets, and the burners will be made of bronze, in order to stand the weather. Mr. Bartberger informs us that the arrangements for lighting it will be completed within the next two weeks.

The exact heighth of the spire is not known, as there have been several changes made in the original plan since the work commenced, but as it is necessary to know the exact heighth, and dimensions in order to have the other spire, which will be erected during the coming summer, correspond with it, Mr. Bartberger will take the dimensions of it before the scaffolding is removed. The supposed heighth from the ground to the top of the cross is two hundred and fifty-seven feet.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed of record before H. Snively, Esq., Recorder, Nov. 16, 1868:

MORTGAGES.

On the same day ten mortgages were filed for record.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The audience at the Opera House last night was one of the largest that has assembled there for some time. The attraction was Chanfrau, in his character of "Sam," and the piece was most admirably rendered. The cast was a most admirable one throughout, in every instance, the members of the company being cast in that particular role for which they were best suited. The frequent bursts of applause from the delighted audience throughout the entertainment fully evinced their appreciation of the efforts of the performers. To-night "Sam" will be repeated, and we would advise all those who desire seats to secure them early, as the house will doubtless be filled to its utmost capacity, there being scarcely standing room last night.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—The lovers of fun are having a rich treat at the varieties theatre during the present week. In addition to the excellent stock company which adorns the boards at this establishment, several new and splendid attractions are announced. The success of the varieties is mainly due to the energy of the manager, Mr. Williams, whose enterprise, the public have most liberally rewarded.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—As previously announced, the Old Theatre will be reopened under a new management on Monday evening next, when Miss Kate Fisher will appear as Mazeppa.

LAFAYETTE HALL.—Mrs. Frances Anne Kemble will give Shaksperian readings at Lafayette Hall, Thursday and Friday evenings next. She is one of the first readers of the country, and will doubtless draw full houses.

FRANKLIN HALL.—The success of the Museum at Franklin Hall is far greater than ever the Manager expected, and it may now be considered one of the fixtures of the city. Major Burnell, the gentlemanly proprietor of the establishment, is continually adding new attractions to his already fine collection of curiosities, both natural and artificial, and if the collection continues to increase so rapidly he will in a short time be compelled to find a more commodious hall. The Museum is open day and evening, and is constantly thronged with ladies and children.

15 to 25 Per Cent.—Ladies' Furs.

The saving of twenty per cent—the average of the above—on an article valued at one hundred dollars is twenty dollars, no inconsiderable item to the economical purchaser. And it is this fact, together with an immense stock of fine furs of all grades in quality and of all styles, which has created such a sensation this season, and made the representative and popular house of William Fleming, 139 Wood street, such a centre of attraction to purchasers. At no other house are such inducements offered, and we have yet to hear one of the vast throng of people who have visited Fleming's emporium during the season differ with the universal opinion that no where else can such splendid furs be obtained at such great bargains. The people appreciate that system of trade which enables a merchant, by large sales, to sell at small profits, as is evidenced by the great business now being done by Mr. Fleming. The establishment credits its success also to the confidence with which it has inspired the public by the invariable rule of permitting no salesman to make any misrepresentation to purchasers as to quality or grade of goods to secure a sale, so that, necessarily, all goods sold are warranted to prove in wear even more than set forth when purchased. We urgently insist on our customers calling early at this favorite house to make their purchases, as, from present appearances, prices must advance before the close of the season, or as soon as the first supply is exhausted, and they certainly cannot be sold lower than now offered at Fleming's.

A Deserving Award.

On Wednesday last, after a successful exposition, the Mechanics' Institute of Maryland closed its fair at Baltimore. The awards of the various Committees have just been published in the Baltimore Gazette. The extensive and famed piano manufactory of Messrs. William Knabe & Co., represented in this city by Mrs. Charlotte Blume, Fifth avenue, comes in for the following neat but deserved compliment at the hands of the Committee on Pianos. The Gazette says:

"Among the chief premiums, the certificate of the gold medal was awarded to Messrs. William Knabe & Co. for the best Pianos. The rule of the Institute is that the same manufacturer cannot more than once receive the gold medal, but so long as it maintains its superiority, the certificate of the gold medal is awarded. Messrs. Knabe & Co.'s Pianos were adjudged the best, and the certificate was accordingly awarded to them, and there is no doubt the committee had a proper appreciation of the excellence of the instruments."

Mrs. Blume, whose music store and piano warerooms are opposite the old Theatre, on Fifth avenue, has a full stock of Knabe instruments of various grades and qualities, to which we would direct the attention of our readers. It requires no special gift of judgment to discover the many excellent qualities and superiorities of these Pianos.

Public Speakers and Singers will find "Brown's Bronchial Troches" beneficial in clearing the voice before speaking or singing, and relieving the throat after any unusual exertion of the vocal organs, having a peculiar adaptation to affections which disturb the organs of speech. For Coughs and Colds the Troches are effectual.

Messrs. Fields and Osgood, of Boston, have sent us the December Atlantic. It is as good as usual and more than commonly bulky. The article on the slave trade by Rev. E. E. Hale is probably the most noteworthy in this number.

A busy man is a locomotive, and life a track. Every night he drives into "the house," and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes switching off in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use PLANTATION BITTERS, which are the ne plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.
